Are You Enjoying Your Inheritance?

If you are born again, you are an heir of God (Gal. 3:29) and a joint-heir with Jesus Christ (Rom. 8:17). And you have a glorious inheritance! But are you living like an heir?

Ephesians 1:18 says that God has given you the riches of His glory in Christ. This means you have certain rights and privileges in Jesus. But it's up to you to find out what they are. Why is this so important? Because the success of your Christian life is measured (to a great extent) by understanding who you are in Christ and what you possess in Him-and then by taking advantage of what belongs to you.

How do you find out what belongs to you? The Word of God contains His will and testament, telling you what you have inherited. His promises tell you what your rights and privileges are in Christ. When you receive those promises, you can live in the fullness of your inheritance.

No one will force you to receive your inheritance in Christ, not even God Himself. Of course, He wants you to receive what belongs to you, but He won't come down and force you to receive the riches of His glory in Christ. You've got to take your stand on the Word for what belongs to you.

When the devil walks in and tries to bring his sickness, lack, and trouble, you've got to tell him, "Devil, I am an heir! This belongs to me. In the Name of Jesus, leave now!" Rebuke him and put him in his place. Don't let him take advantage of you.

It's up to you. Will you receive the promises of God? Will you live in the freedom that belongs to you? Make the decision to stand your ground and claim all the wonderful promises that already belong to you today as an heir!

This month's magazine will help you learn to enjoy all that God has for you. From finances to the authority of the believer to transitioning through the seasons of life, we have you covered! Don't miss a single page! And be sure to share your favorite quotes with us on social media. Just #RhemaWOF.

HOW TO HAVE IN YOUR HOME

LYNETTE HAGIN

THE LORD WANTS us to live in peace. The scriptures give us this admonition quite frequently. For example, John 16:33 (NKJV) says, "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have PEACE." Yet it seems that peace often does not reign in our lives.

I am shocked at the turmoil that exists in the homes of many Christians. Our homes should be places of peace. They should be shelters for us in the midst of troubles in the world. Family members should unite and stand with each other. However, the enemy is playing havoc in the homes of Christians; it is one of his oldest schemes.

Our homes should be places of peace. They should be shelters for us in the midst of troubles in the world.

The Church at Corinth was suffering from such strife within it that the Apostle Paul had to remind the members, "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you" (2 Cor. 13:11). I believe we should take a hint from Paul's words and adopt the following as our family motto: "Be of one mind. Live in peace." In order to live out that instruction from Paul, we must learn to communicate effectively with others, beginning with our spouse and our children. Communication is often the most difficult skill to master, because we can experience so many different emotions when we are communicating our thoughts and feelings. Paul talked about that in Ephesians 4:26–27: "Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil."

This sounds like a contradictory statement—"be angry and sin not"—but it isn't. The Lord knows that anger is one of the emotions we experience in life. Yet He tells us, "Although you may be feeling angry, do not sin." Exactly what does that mean?

I like the way The Message Bible explains those verses. It says, "Go ahead and be angry. You do well to be angry—but don't use your anger as fuel for revenge. And don't stay angry. Don't go to bed angry. Don't give the Devil that kind of foothold in your life." Yes, you may experience angry feelings. But don't use those feelings to get even. In the midst of anger, you might say words that you don't really mean, but those cutting words will forever ring in the ears of the recipient.

Life is too short to live in constant turmoil in your home. That holds true regarding your relationships with friends and other loved ones as well.

My husband and I have been married nearly 50 years, so I can offer you some lessons that I've learned from experience.

I believe that following this advice will enhance your marriage journey. (It can also be applied to your relationships with others.)

My husband and I have practiced these guidelines over the years. I will not pretend that we perfected them overnight. But as we began to practice these principles, we found that peace continually reigned in our home. As each of us was willing to readily say, "I'm sorry; forgive me" (words you can say to anyone in your life), the conflict was easily resolved.

I encourage you to start practicing the love walk in your home. Make it a place of comfort and refuge. Don't allow the enemy to bring strife into your life. Recognize the source of that strife and do not give place to it.

Make Christ the center of your home. When we place Him first in our homes, marriages, and other relationships, every hostile wall will be broken down and the love of God will rule and reign in our lives.

What's Love Got to Do With It?

Many people refer to First Corinthians 13 as "the love chapter." Too often, we want to skip over reading that part of the Bible. I admit I have felt that way at times, but the Lord continues to lead me to read it. In fact, whenever my husband and I perform a marriage ceremony, I always read this portion of chapter 13 to the bride and groom:

1 Corinthians 13:4–7 (Amplified)

4 Love endures long and is patient and kind; love never is envious nor boils over with jealousy, is not boastful or vainglorious, does not display itself haughtily.

5 It is not conceited (arrogant and inflated with pride); it is not rude (unmannerly) and does not act unbecomingly. Love (God's love in us) does not insist on its own rights or its own way, for it is not self-seeking; it is not touchy or fretful or resentful; it takes no account of the evil done to it [it pays no attention to a suffered wrong].

6 It does not rejoice at injustice and unrighteousness, but rejoices when right and truth prevail.

7 Love bears up under anything and everything that comes, is ever ready to believe the best of every person, its hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and it endures everything [without weakening].

If we would practice this passage daily, we could live peaceful, productive lives. The problem is, our flesh often gets in the way. Instead of ignoring injustices that are done to us, we want to get even. Instead of walking in love, we want to repay evil for evil.

FAITH IN ACTION

But we can walk in love! We can live in peace and harmony. There's no better time to start than right now. Pray the following out loud, from your heart:

Father,

Forgive me for allowing any turmoil, strife, or anger to enter into my home life or my other relationships. Help me to resolve every conflict guickly and choose to forgive-even when I don't feel like it. And help me to start walking in love everywhere I go. I ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen.

What Will Ove Do for Me?

When we choose to put the enduring, everlasting, God-kind of love into practice, it will mature us and transform every area of our lives!

'My God Can Do Anything'

THE LORD SAVES US because He loves us, but He also wants us to share His light with others. Just after graduating in 2000 from Rhema Bible Training College, Lana Vasquez moved to Southeast Asia and eventually began rescuing children being sold into prostitution or slavery.

Joy*, then 9, was the first child Lana rescued. She and her four siblings had been supporting their mother by begging. As an older child, Joy wasn't bringing in as of taking the Gospel to a women's prison on the Thai/Myanmar border. At Christmas this young lady, Joy, and 11 other rescued teens from Life Impact International, Lana's ministry, went to the prison. The girls performed a drama about the birth of Jesus and sang songs about His blood that washes away sin.

The teenager who set this ministry opportunity in motion with her vision boldly shared her testimony. She then asked the inmates if they much, and her mother had agreed to sell her to human traffickers for 16 U.S. dollars. Lana negotiated with Joy's mother and rescued the youngster for 24 U.S. dollars.

Joy, now 15, has been living out of harm's way in one of Lana's safe houses. Her four siblings are also living under Lana's roof. As each child got older and no longer brought in enough money from begging, Joy's mother would sell them to the highest bidder. With no more children to beg, the mother went into drug trafficking. She was eventually arrested and imprisoned.

Another young lady who'd grown up under Lana's care had a vision would like Jesus to change their lives. Hands went up everywhere.

As it turned out, Joy's mother was in this prison. And after the ministry time, Joy had an opportunity to talk with her.

"Your grandmother is going to be mad," Joy's mom said. (The grandmother is Muslim.)

"I will fly to Malaysia and tell her why I love this God I serve so much," Joy responded. "I will ask her to love Him too."

"How in the world are you going to go to Malaysia?" "My God can do anything," Joy boldly declared. "Nothing is impossible for Him!"

Joy is no longer the scared little girl Lana rescued. She has been changed. And she is changing her family!

Lana has rescued more than 145 children from the horrors of slavery, prostitution, and exploitation. In addition to her work with children, she also preaches the Gospel to rebel soldiers, villagers, and displaced people. Over 54,000 men, women, and children have escaped the flames of hell in the past 14 years through her ministry.

*Joy's name has been changed for her safety.

GOD IS a big God. Nothing happening in the world can stop Him from blessing His children. He does not depend upon natural circumstances in order to bless us.

Our Heavenly Father moves in the supernatural realm! He can use anything He wants to in order to bring us a financial blessing. But we must learn to praise Him instead of looking to other things as our source. God alone is our Source. And I believe if we would praise Him out of a relationship of trust, He could change our financial situations. He could make the earth yield an increase for us—no matter what is going on economically in the world.

You see, if we're not careful, we will get caught up speaking negative words that can work against us. I'm not saying we shouldn't recognize the facts as they exist in the world. But God is greater than any natural facts, and He can provide anything for us! When we praise Him, we put our focus on Him rather than worrying about the problem. As we give Him and His Word all of our attention, God can abundantly provide for us—even if He has to create a miracle!

Praise Brings Increase

In the Old Testament, when God told the children of Israel to praise Him, their problems still loomed like giants before them.

And many times their problems were literal giants! But God told them to praise Him and not be moved by their problems—or by those giants. They were only to be moved by God.

When the Israelites praised God as they had been taught, the earth began to do what it was supposed to do. It granted an increase to them and blessed them. And time and time again, their enemies were put to shame before them!

I'm sure many of us have experienced areas in our lives that seemed to be resistant to growth or increase. In some of these areas it may seem as if we've continually experienced a "crop failure." Try as we might, nothing appeared to change. Yet look at what Psalm 67 says.

PSALM 67:5-6

5 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6 THEN shall the earth YIELD HER INCREASE; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

Even in the hard places—the areas that have resisted change we must keep our eyes off the problem and focus only on giving God praise. When we do, He will cause an increase to come, no matter how many crop failures we've had! His blessings will be upon our lives in abundance. But the blessings of God won't come to us in the fullest measure unless we do what verse 5 says-live a life of praising Him!

Praise is one way God's people tap into and appropriate what already belongs to them through Christ. It's one way the increase comes. And if believers would learn the secret of praising God sincerely from their hearts regardless of circumstances, they would find God's blessings overtaking them. Instead of them running after the blessings, the blessings would run after them!

Increase in Every Area

We probably all have areas where we need to experience increase. For example, each of us has dreams, desires, gifts, and talents that God has placed inside us. But we may not know how to develop our gifts or use our talents productively. We may not know what practical steps to take to make those dreams become a reality in our lives.

THE EARTH AND EVERYTHING WE SET OUR HAND TO must prosper AS WE PUT GOD AND HIS WORD FIRST and consistently praise Him FOR HIS GOODNESS TO US. Shalls

As we learn to live a life of praising God-I don't mean every once in awhile, but consistently-He will see to it that these undeveloped areas bring forth fruit to His glory. The earth and everything we set our hand to must prosper as we put God and His Word first and consistently praise Him for His goodness to us.

Do you want increase in your life? Begin to draw closer to God and His Word. Give Him praise! It doesn't matter where you need more fruit-whether in finances or in your career or in achieving your God-given potential. As you make it your lifestyle to praise Him from your heart, whatever you set your hand to must increase!♥

FAITH NUGGET

Get Your Praise On!

Do you have a need in your life? Are you facing lack in any area? No doubt you've praved and sought God about it. But if you haven't seen your answer manifest yet, don't keep praying about it over and over again. You can actually hinder your faith by praying repeatedly about the same situation in an attitude of doubt and unbelief, as if God did not hear you the first time.

As long as we're praying in line with His Word, we know He hears us, because that's what His Word says. And if we know that God hears us, then we know that we have what we have asked Him for. (See 1 John 5:14-15.) All we need to do then is praise Him for the answer!

Just present your request to God. Then begin to praise Him in simple faith that He has heard you and is answering your petition.

Praise confirms to your own heart that God has heard and answered your prayers, because according to the Bible, "What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ve receive them, and ve shall have them" (Mark 11:24). In other words, faith isn't faith until you say, "Thank You, Father. I believe I receive my answer now!" Praise is that act of believing and receiving by faith.

GOD IS FAITHFUL!

Rhema USA Sends Out 41st Graduating Class

ON FRIDAY, May 15, 350 graduates of Rhema Bible Training College USA walked proudly into the Cox Business Center auditorium in Tulsa. Surrounding them were family and friends, cheering and taking pictures to capture the special moment. Each graduate received a diploma and a runner's relay baton. The diploma marked their completion of years of preparation. The baton served as a reminder that others have run before them, and it is now their turn to enter the earth's harvest fields and run their race for the Lord. Over 7,000 people in 75 countries watched the celebration over the Internet.

Rev. Keith Moore, pastor of Faith Life Church in Branson, Missouri, and Sarasota, Florida, and a 1983 Rhema Bible Training College graduate, delivered the commencement address. Rev. Moore reminded the graduates that in the next phase of their lives, God will be faithful to help them finish their course.

If you asked me, "What can you say to me after 30 years down the road from when you were sitting in my seat?" I would tell you three words: God is faithful! It took all the faith my wife and I had to get to Rhema. And then, once we got here, it took all the faith we had to stay. We had to believe God for every tank of gas, lunch money, and tuition money.

The way you believed God for your lunch money, clothes, and tuition is the same way it works in the next step of your life. You're going to find out that God is faithful.

The scripture says in First Corinthians 1:9, "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." It also says in First Thessalonians 5:24, "Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it." He's faithful to strengthen you. He's faithful to keep you. God won't allow you, or suffer you, to be tempted or tried above what you're able, but will, with the temptation, make a way where you're able to escape it.

What does that mean? If a problem shows up in your life that you never imagined you'd have to deal with, He is faithful to help you overcome it. Don't ever believe the lie that "This is too big. This is too much." If it really was too big, it wouldn't be in your life. God wouldn't have allowed it.

We know God is faithful, but what about us? Can He count on us? First Corinthians 4:2 says it's required of stewards that a man be found faithful. Whatever stewardship or charge the Lord gives us, it's required that we be found faithful.

For us to be faithful, we must do exactly what God tells us to do. God doesn't reward tenure. He doesn't reward talent. He rewards the person who obeys Him.

God already counts you faithful (1 Tim. 1:12). That's why you're here. The reason you are called is that the One Who knows the end from the beginning knew your heart. He knew you had a heart to obey Him. At that moment before you ever answered the call, He said, "I count that one faithful." That's how you've made it this far. All we've got to do is agree with Him. If He says you're faithful, then you're faithful.

As the ceremony ended, the graduates walked out of the auditorium, each holding a lit candle in one hand and a baton in the other. Each baton bore these words: "I commit today to carry the baton of revival to this generation. I will carry the banner of faith and God's power to a lost and dying world. This is my time to do all God has called me to do!" ♥ "God doesn't reward tenure. He doesn't reward talent. He rewards the person who obeys Him."

Sharing the Good News in Hong Kong

"... when you're doing your own calling, there's so much fulfillment and so much grace, revelation, and provision."

IN 1985 IN THE SMALL, front-range town of Longmont, Colorado, Sharmin, a high school senior, shared with her church youth group her love for Christian missions. She had visited two countries and planned to go to Asia that summer. She told them her dream of reaching more people on foreign soil for Jesus.

Among her listeners was Steve, a youth leader in the church. Seeing her for the first time, he was impressed by her servant's heart and her willingness to go anywhere for the Lord. He shared her desire to reach more people overseas for Jesus. His one missions trip had whetted his appetite for more.

After Sharmin graduated, she also became a leader in her youth group. Steve introduced himself, and eventually the two became good friends, then fell in love. In 1988 they married, and the newlyweds moved to Florida. Steve served as a youth pastor, and their family began to grow with the births of two boys, Joab and Naiah.

The Fischers moved back home to Colorado in 1992, and their family grew again—this time with two girls, Jasmine and Jael. And they were prospering. Steve operated a booming construction business in the small ski town of Winter Park.

But despite success and comfort, the Fischers weren't satisfied. Their desire to take the Gospel to the world still burned in their hearts. In 1995 Kenneth E. Hagin visited the church where they first met, and they attended the two weeks of meetings. As he preached they both sensed a strong desire to move to Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, to attend Rhema Bible Training College and prepare for ministry. They made the move in 1996.

At Rhema, the Fischers grew spiritually. "A foundation of faith was built in us," shared Steve. "We learned how to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit and step out in faith." All this proved to be valuable preparation for their next step. In 2001 the Lord led Steve and Sharmin to go to the Philippines to teach in a Bible school. The couple sold everything—including their 5,500-square-foot home with a swimming pool and four-car garage—and moved halfway around the world with their four children into a 550-square-foot apartment in Manila with armed guards stationed at the entrance. "We went through some major adjustments," said Steve.

But with God's grace, the family made the transition well. Steve served as dean of a Bible school and they both taught and trained laborers for ministry. The Fischers knew this wasn't their final destination, but it was part of God's wonderful plan for them. After successfully completing their season in the Philippines, the couple heard from the Lord in prayer that they needed to move to Hong Kong. They knew no one there and had never visited that city. But again they stepped out in faith, packed their belongings, and moved their family to one of the world's most densely populated urban areas.

When the Fischers arrived in Hong Kong, they immediately saw the need for Bibles and Christian teaching in China. Believing that God doesn't call just the parents to ministry, they've always included their children in everything they do. So together they began to take Bibles, Spirit-filled Christian teaching materials, and Kenneth Hagin books across the border into China. It became routine for their two junior high-aged sons to transport Bibles in the morning and homeschool in the afternoon.

During the past decade, the Fischers' ministry has led over 2,000 people from 21 U.S. states and 22 countries into China to distribute materials in almost every major city. The Fischers themselves have taken over 30,000 Christian books into China. And with teams they have delivered over 50 tons of materials to believers on the mainland. "Unfortunately, this is only a small cup of water attempting to quell the spiritual thirst of over 120 million Chinese believers desiring to know more of God," Steve said.

FUNDS to buy the church facility. Rent has doubled in the last five years and continues to climb.

TEAMS and INDIVIDUALS to come to China to help take Christian materials to mainland cities.

STEVE PREACHING AT A REGISTERED GOVERNMENT CHINESE BIBLE SCHOOL

In China, they also hold children's and youth camps, teach in Bible schools, and visit and support orphanages, Chinese pastors, and other western missionaries. They are even getting Kenneth Hagin materials to North Korean believers.

In one rural region in South Central China there were no Christians, and the residents had never seen a white person until the Fischers visited with a team. One of the first people to receive salvation was a 101-year-old woman. Two years later the team returned. This same woman, now 103, introduced her daughter to them, and she, too, received salvation. There is now a growing Christian community in this formerly unreached area. Every year the Fischers lead a team there to bring Bibles and Kenneth Hagin books.

In 2007 the Lord led the Fischers to pioneer Faith Family Christian Church Hong Kong in their living room. The Chinese started coming, the congregation grew, and eventually the church needed its own facility. The family located a building in the heart of Hong Kong,

THE 103-YEAR-OLD WOMAN AND HER DAUGHTER WHO RECEIVED JESUS AN UNREACHED CHINESE VILLAGE IN SOUTHERN CHINA VISITED BY THE FISCHERS

Steve said, "We'll just sit on the floor and I'll start teaching about giving. And when money comes in, we'll start renovating." But even before the first service, church members began being blessed on their jobs and money started coming from U.S. churches. Before long they had the funds to buy all materials needed for renovation. Drawing on his 20 years of construction experience, Steve had the church members do the renovating. Doing the work themselves gave the young Chinese a heartfelt sense of ownership in their new church facility.

Located in the Kwun Tong district of Kowloon, Faith Family Christian Church is now a spiritual home for more than 150

Chinese people. Every Sunday morning, senior pastors Steve and Sharmin share sound, practical, faith-filled teaching from God's Word with their young congregation. Services are conducted in English with Cantonese translation, and the Fischer family worship team members sing in English, Cantonese, and Mandarin.

God's Word is at work in church members' lives. Some have been delivered from smoking, drug addiction, and unhealthy relationships. Others were involved in organized crime. All are enjoying new lives in Christ and walking out their God-given purpose.

This couple who met in a Colorado youth group, now with their children helping them, are fulfilling their mutual desire to reach those on foreign soil for Jesus. Joab, Naiah, and their spouses all are Rhema USA graduates, and the young men serve as associate pastors in the Hong Kong church. Last year the Fischers were thrilled with the launching of Rhema Hong Kong. Of the 23 first-year students, 22—including their daughters Jasmine and Jael—were from their church.

The Fischers and their family have learned there is great joy in serving the Lord wholeheartedly. "We've had seemingly insurmountable obstacles that we've come through," shared Steve. "But when you're doing your own calling, there's so much fulfillment and so much grace, revelation, and provision."

IN THE NEW TESTAMENT God maintains three relations toward the believer. First, God is for us. Romans 8:31 says, "What shall we then say to these things? If God be FOR us, who can be against us?" If we're not careful, we can forget the Bible is so and that God is for us.

With God on our side, we are guaranteed success. God is not a failure. When we know that He is for us, we can be utterly fearless, no matter how dark the situation or how difficult the problem. We can be sure of this: God has the ability, the power, and the answer to put us over.

Sometimes people miss it and sin. But God is for us, even when we miss it. John was not writing to sinners when he wrote, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9).

We don't have to experience defeat when the great unseen One is for us.

God wants to help us and restore us when we miss it. He wants to lift us up even when we stumble and fall.

Proverbs 24:16 says, "A just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again." If we've fallen or failed in an area, we can't just lie there. We must get up, repent, and go on with God. He will forgive us.

With Us

Thank God He is for us. We don't have to experience defeat when the great unseen One is for us. But He is also with us. In John 14:23 we read, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode WITH him."

Our abode, or home, is the place where we live. Jesus said that we—speaking of Himself and God—would make their abode, or home, inside of us. When we're conscious that God is with us in all of life's circumstances and difficulties, it will buoy up our faith. We will know that God is with us.

in US

In Us

God goes one step further. He is not only for us, and with us, but He is also in us! Ephesians 2:22 says, "In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit."

God has made His home in our bodies! First Corinthians 6:19 says, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?"

When we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, we no longer belong to ourselves. We become the temple of the Holy Spirit. God has made His home in our bodies!

Unfortunately, many Christians are not conscious of this, nor do they really believe it. If they believed that God dwelt in them, they would not talk about their lack of power or ability. There is no lack in God, and since He dwells in us, we should not have any lack either.

Second Corinthians 6:16 says, "Ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people." Why does God live in us? To put us over and help us.

The first three verses of First John chapter 4 talk about demons and evil spirits. The 4th verse begins by saying, "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them...." "Them" refers to the devil and his cohorts. Through Christ, we have overcome all demonic forces. How? This verse goes on to tell us: "... because greater is he that is IN [us], than he that is in the world."

The Greater One—the One Who overcame the devil and his demonic forces—lives in us! How big is the Greater One? He's greater than the devil. He's greater than demons and evil spirits. He's greater than sin, sickness, and disease. He's greater than any force or power that tries to come against us!

We let the Greater One dominate our lives by allowing His Word to dominate us. That's why James tells us to be doers of the Word and not hearers only (James 1:22). Scripture says that when we are only hearers of the Word, we delude ourselves.

We just need to act as if the Word of God is so—because it is. But if we don't know the Word, we're at a disadvantage. We can't act on what we don't know. When we're full of the Word and incline our ears to what it says, then we'll know what to do in any situation. It's doing the Word, or acting as if it is true, that brings God's blessings in our lives.

FAITH IN ACTION

Rely On the Greater One in You

If God is in us, then His nature, His love, His wisdom, and His strength are in us. All that God is, is in us!

Whenever you face what looks like an impossible situation, confess in faith: "God is in me. God's ability is mine. God's strength is mine. God's health is mine. God's success is mine. I'm a winner. I'm a conqueror. I'm a success!"

Our confession of the Greater One living in us will help us overcome any situation or circumstance that comes against us.

When God is for us, who can be against us (Rom. 8:31)? And because God is with us, He will never forsake us. He will be with us to the end of the world (Matt. 28:20). The Greater One dwells in us (1 John 4:4) and will put us over and make us a success in life.

Making Transitions

DENISE BURNS

LIFE IS FILLED with different seasons. There are seasons in our jobs, seasons in marriage and parenting, seasons in the weather. Ecclesiastes 3:1 says, "For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven" (NLT).

Every season is beautiful in its own time. When we're in a season, we're doing our thing and loving it. But when that season starts coming to an end, we begin feeling uncomfortable. We feel like we should go in a different direction. But maybe we're not sure what to do or where to go. In between where we are and where we're going is a gap of time—a transition.

For example, Ecclesiastes 3:8 says there is "a time to love and a time to hate." Love and hate are opposites. We don't go from loving something to hating something and vice versa just like that. There's a gap of time in between.

Transitioning from one season to another can be difficult for some people. But we need to realize that the way we leave

SHARE!

Tell us about the transitions in your life. Were they good or not so good? Post what happened on our Facebook page. #RhemaWOF one season is oftentimes the way we begin the next season. So we want to make a good transition.

Some people make good transitions and some don't. Many times people start to gripe and complain. And sometimes they do things that hurt others. When transitions aren't made correctly, a lot of damage can be done. I don't believe that God wants us to handle a change of season this way.

Recognizing When a Season Is Ending

Transitions don't have to end badly. We don't have to burn bridges every time we move into a new phase in our lives. We can make better transitions by recognizing when a season is coming to an end. Here are some ways to know when it's time to move on.

We're no longer content. We used to find a lot of happiness in what we were doing. Now we just can't stand it.

We become easily invitated. Things that never used to bother us now irritate us. Everything gets on our nerves!

3 We complain and find fault. We begin judging others—feeling that we can do things better. We start sowing dissension among our peers.

We dream of a better place. We believe that if we could just move somewhere else, life would be a lot better.

Our Guide—the Holy Spirit

The good news is that God hasn't left us alone to figure things out by ourselves. He gave us a Guide to help us through the transitions and seasons of our lives.

JOHN 16:13 (NLT)

13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future.

Oftentimes, instead of paying attention to the Holy Spirit, we ignore Him. It's kind of like people on a sightseeing trip. The tour guide is talking about the different sights, but some people just tune him out instead of listening to what he has to say.

FAITH NUGGET

Burnout Versus Transition

Signs that a season is changing and signs of burnout are very similar. Just because we're discontented, irritated, and dreaming of a better place doesn't mean it's time to quit our job, leave our church, or move to a new city.

Maybe we're just burned out and need to take a few steps back and revive ourselves. We need to ask God what's going on—why we're irritable and impatient. We need to pray and find out from Him, "Do I just need a break? Or are You transitioning me to a new season?"

Sometimes we do that with the Holy Spirit. Instead of dialing in and saying, "Lead me. Guide me. Show me about the future," we tune Him out. This is how people miss their transitions. They've stopped listening to their Guide.

God hasn't left us alone to figure things out by ourselves.

Share

That's why we see people who constantly complain and have nasty attitudes. They're miserable and unhappy and don't realize their season is up. They need to transition to a new season. But they've quit listening to their Guide and don't know where to go to next.

Stepping out of a season can be scary. But as we closely follow the Holy Spirit, He will get us to where we need to be.

Make a Plan

Anytime we're sensing a transition, it's never a good idea to take a big leap. That's not smart. That's how bad transitions are made. We may see where we want to be, but there are steps to take to get there. And a plan on how to take these steps needs to be made.

Sometimes the hardest thing to do is not jump out. Timing is everything. God has His timing under control, and we need to stay within His timeframe. The Lord may be transitioning us to a new place, but if we get there at the wrong time, it still creates a whole world of problems for everybody.

Before making a move, it's always good to seek godly counsel and talk to someone who is smarter and wiser than we are—someone who can give us sound advice on how to make the transition. And once we've settled in our heart that God is moving us to a new season, we need to keep a good attitude. This can be hard, because we want so badly to get to the next season. It's never OK to sow discord and dissension. We don't want to leave a wake of injured people behind us. And it's never a good idea to burn bridges. We might need that bridge in the future.

Recognizing Our Seasons

Let's take inventory of our lives. Are we exhibiting any of the signs that indicate it may be time to move on? If so, we need to pay attention to our Guide. If we take a step and it starts getting rough, we just need to look to the Holy Spirit. He'll tell us when to move forward, whether to turn right or left, and when to wait. Let's recognize the seasons of our life. And when our season is changing, let's purpose in our hearts to make good transitions.

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL." — ISALAH 58.11 (NIV)

HAVE YOU EVER experienced a disappointment? I am sure that you are thinking, "Not just one disappointment, but many in my lifetime!" I certainly can identify. The first disappointment that I remember was at the age of 10. Our elementary school was having a fall carnival and a king and queen were going to be crowned at the end. The students from each grade voted to choose a prince and princess for that grade. I was chosen as the princess of the fifth grade class.

The contest centered on how many votes you received. It was a school fundraiser, so each penny that a candidate collected counted as a vote for him or her. At the end of the carnival, the girl and boy who had raised the most money were crowned king and queen of the school. We had around two months to collect our monies. I went to all of my relatives and friends, and they gave me money. I sold cookies and other items to raise money. In that era, soft drinks were sold in glass bottles, and you would return them to the store and receive a deposit back. I collected bottles from all of my family and friends and got money that way.

Needless to say, I worked for the votes I received. At the start of the carnival, I was in first place. I was so excited! Then the master of ceremonies announced that votes could be collected for 10 more minutes. I thought that I had won because I was considerably ahead. Right before the 10 minutes were up, another girl's father put in a large sum of money for his daughter to win the contest. I was devastated. I held my head high as we were positioned for a group picture with the king and queen. However, when I got into the car with my father, I lost my composure. I said, "Dad, that was not fair. I worked for my votes, and her dad simply put money in at the last minute so his daughter could win." My dad, being very wise, said, "Honey, life is not always fair. But you have to rise above the disappointments that you experience and know that with God, you are always a winner."

I pulled myself together and then asked God to take the hurt away and help me not to hold bitterness in my heart toward the girl who had won.

I learned this very valuable lesson early. Disappointments come our way all through life. You can allow them to hinder you or you can use them as steppingstones. You can allow them to permanently scar your life or you can look to our Heavenly Father, the One Who will always heal your broken heart. Psalm 34:18–19 (NLT) says, "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; he rescues those whose spirits are crushed. The righteous person faces many troubles, but the Lord comes to the rescue each time."

One of our friends, Bruce Haynes, wrote a song called "Praise His Name." The lyrics speak so clearly about how we should react in disappointing times. He gave me permission to include them here.

When you're up against a wall and your mountain seems so tall, and you realize that life's not always fair,
You can run away and hide, let the old man decide,
Or you can change your circumstances with a prayer.
When everything falls apart, praise His Name.
When you have a broken heart, raise your hands and say,
"Lord, You're all I need. You're everything to me."
And He'll take the pain away.
When it seems you're all alone, praise His Name.
When you feel you can't go on, raise your hands and say, "Greater is He that is within me." You can praise the hurt away, if you'll just praise His Name.

As I asked the Lord what to write about this month, I seemed impressed that there was someone, or maybe more than one person, who had experienced quite a few disappointments over the last several months. So many times the enemy tries to direct us to be mad at God for circumstances that befall us. During disappointing times, I encourage you to go to God, not run from Him. He will help you get through every situation and circumstance.

Know that if you have made Jesus the Lord of your life, God is your personal God. And He will cause you to always triumph in spite of every difficult and disappointing situation you may encounter. ♥

Jesus was Amazed?!

Everywhere that Jesus went, people were amazed by the things that He did. But did you know that there were two times in the Bible when Jesus was amazed by something someone else did? Circle the two people or groups of people below that you think amazed Jesus.

(A.) Simon Peter
 (B.) The Centurion with a sick servant
 (C.) King Herod
 (D.) Superman
 (E.) The people in His hometown

Read Mark 6:6 and Luke 7:9 in the New International Version to find the answers.

This Is Puzzling!

Place the puzzle pieces below in the right order and you will discover a word that no Christian should be without. Write the number order of the puzzle pieces in the circle above each piece. The first piece has already been put in the correct number order.

With this little object lesson, you will discover that some things that look like impossibilities really aren't.

Get a piece of plain paper and cut it into a square about 6 inches wide by 6 inches long. Find the center of the piece of paper and place a dime in the center and trace around its edges. Cut out the hole in the center with scissors.

HAVE SOME FAITH!

2 Show your friends that a dime can easily go through the hole that was cut in the paper. Give them the opportunity to slip the dime through the hole.

Then have one of your friends try to put a quarter through the same hole. They will be unsuccessful because the hole is too small. Announce that you can make the quarter pass through the hole without tearing the paper or doing any "hocus-pocus," but you will not do it unless your friends "have some faith" in you.

When they show that they have faith that you can do it, simply fold the paper in half and place the quarter into the hole. A small edge of the quarter will appear through the hole. Then hold the folded paper on both ends of the fold and gently bend the edges upward as shown in the picture (4). The hole will widen as it is stretched and the quarter will easily drop through the hole. Tell your friends that Jesus faced a situation just like yours. He had the ability to do things that to others seemed impossible, but He couldn't do it in His hometown because they didn't believe Him.
