Suggested Guidelines for International Rhema Day 2018

International Rhema Day has three objectives:

1. To support Rhema Bible Training College USA financially as it prepares students for ministry.
2. To pray for Rhema Bible Training College USA, its staff, and the current student body.
3. To share with others about Rhema Bible Training College USA.

Prior to International Rhema Day:

- Beginning in April, identify Sunday, May 6, as International Rhema Day in your church, ministry or business announcements and/or bulletin. A slide is available at rhema.org/ird to help you with this.
- Let church members, partners, and employees know they will have the opportunity to give a special Rhema Day offering on (or around, for other organizations) Sunday, May 6.
- For churches, encourage your members to bring anyone who is interested in attending Rhema to the May 6 service.
- Help people understand the important role they play in the future of Rhema Bible Training College USA. An IRD video is also available at rhema.org/ird for you to download and share.

Share the International Rhema Day Facebook graphic on your church, ministry or business Facebook page.

On May 6, 2018, explain International Rhema Day's purpose:

1. Support Rhema Bible Training College USA financially.
 - Present the need to support Rhema Bible Training College USA, and then receive an offering for Rhema. (Show the IRD video to help with this.)
 - Mention that text-to-give is available. (See the text-to-give information. A slide is available at rhema.org/ird.)
 - Remind people that their support will help train thousands of students for ministry. Every gift will make a difference!
2. Pray for Rhema Bible Training College USA. Here are specific prayer points:
 - Rhema graduates around the world and the current student body
 - Increased RBTC enrollment
 - Increased ministry finances
 - Wisdom for the Hagins, Rhema's instructors, and the ministry staff
3. Share about Rhema Bible Training College USA.
 - Share about what Rhema has done for you and, if applicable, what it means to be a Rhema graduate. If church members, ministry partners, or employees have attended RBTC, ask one or two to speak briefly about the benefits of attending Rhema.
 - Explain the importance of attending Rhema Bible Training College—a school that teaches the Word of God with excellence and integrity.
 - Distribute the RBTC application sheets to those interested. Make extra application sheets available somewhere in your church, ministry, or business.
