Remember Your Family

Families are important to God. God established marriage and the family long before He instituted the Church or government. And except for our relationship with Him, our family should become our most important priority.

The family unit has always been a target of the Devil. That is why one of my foremost goals is to help people understand how to protect their families from the Enemy's strategies. The Devil knows a divided house cannot stand, so he'll do everything he can to cause division in the home. It is very important to keep our guard up in this area.

When problems arise between a husband and wife, I remind the couple that this is a devil problem. Instead of blaming your spouse for the difficulty that has arisen in your marriage, take authority over the source of the problem—the Enemy.

Communication is the key to a healthy marriage. Work out your disagreements by assertively communicating your feelings. Always use “I” words rather than “you” words. Accept responsibility for your own shortcomings. True love requires action. Although feelings are a vital part of marriage, love is something you do.

It is also very important that we don't neglect our children. Because we live in a busy world with many demands on our time and energy, we must make a conscious effort to make sure that we meet our children's needs.

One of the most important needs our children have is to know they are loved unconditionally. Children will not always act perfectly or make right decisions. They need to know that their home is a place of safety, and that their parents will help them overcome any challenge they face.

Make sure that your home is filled with a godly atmosphere. Teach your children the importance of being faithful to church. Matthew 6:33 was the cornerstone of our home: “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”

Trust and love are developed through relationships. And relationships are built as we spend time with one another. So before the new school year begins, take some time with your family and do something fun that everyone can enjoy together.

It doesn't have to be an elaborate vacation. There might be an amusement park, zoo, or aquarium nearby. Hold a family meeting and let the kids have input about where to go, or even let them decide. Be spontaneous and just have fun. You'll make memories that will last a lifetime.

Nowadays, many homes are places where family members pass one another as they change clothes, eat, and sleep. But let's determine to make our home life the very best it can be. As we do, our marriages and families will grow stronger.

The Last Word
WINS

// KENNETH W. HAGIN

Whether we realize it or not, words can be weapons. And most of us have found ourselves embroiled at some time in a war of words, even if we would never fight with our fists. Words can be more powerful than a boxing punch and cut more deeply than any knife. When used as weapons, words are able to mutilate and destroy.

David said of a former friend, “The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords” (Ps. 55:21).

On the other hand, words can be uplifting and bring encouragement. We use them to obtain God’s promises and overcome Satan. In the Gospel of Matthew, we see how Jesus defeated the Devil with words.

MATTHEW 4:3–11 (NIV)

3 The tempter came to him and said, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread.”

4 Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

5 Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple.

6 “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down. For it is written: ‘He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.’”

7 Jesus answered him, “It is also written: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor.

9 “All this I will give you,” he said, “if you will bow down and worship me.”

10 Jesus said to him, “Away from me, Satan! For it is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’”

11 Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

When Satan tempted Jesus in the wilderness, he quoted Scripture to Jesus out of context. The Devil hasn’t changed. He still uses the same tactics today. He’ll sit on our shoulders and talk in our ears. And when this happens, we have to fight the Devil the same way Jesus did—with words.

Every time the Devil spoke, Jesus countered with the Word of God. And Jesus kept talking until He had the last word. Likewise, anytime the Devil whispers in our ears, we have to keep talking until we outtalk him.

Have you ever watched kids argue? Their arguments can seem endless because each child tries to get the last word. It’s a common belief that whoever gets the last word wins.

During Jesus’ temptation in the desert, Satan didn’t leave the first time Jesus spoke. But Jesus kept talking until He outtalked the Devil. Jesus knew the Word of God better than the Devil did. Each time the Devil presented a temptation, Jesus came back with God’s Word.

We can’t outtalk the Devil if we don’t know what the Bible says. That’s why we must renew our minds by reading and studying the Word. Only then will we be able to prevail when the Devil tempts us.

We must combat the Devil with words. We cannot triumph over him with our mouths closed. If we don’t say anything, he wins by default.

If a person is sued in civil court and fails to appear before the judge on the scheduled trial date, the plaintiff wins by default. The individual wasn’t there to defend himself, so the court awards the victory to the plaintiff.

ANYTIME THE DEVIL WHISPERS IN OUR EARS,
WE HAVE TO KEEP TALKING UNTIL WE OUTTALK HIM.

The same is true with the Devil. If we don’t open our mouths and speak the Word of God, he’ll win in that situation. Knowing what the Bible says isn’t enough; we must say what we know.

It’s imperative that we make a habit of speaking God’s Word aloud every day. When we get out of bed in the morning, we should declare, “This is the day the Lord has made; We will rejoice and be glad in it” (Ps. 118:24 NKJV). Next, we should confess, “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me” (Phil. 4:13 NKJV).

Speaking God’s Word creates an environment that starts our day off right. As we do this, we are building fortresses around ourselves that the Devil will have a hard time penetrating.

Speaking God’s Word is not a luxury for us; it is a necessity. Unfortunately, some people speak the Word only when they’re in trouble. But we need to be making faith confessions long before we experience symptoms of sickness, financial need, or any other problem.

When we speak God’s Word, we are activating, or releasing, His power to work on our behalf. Romans 8:11 says, “But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.” The Holy Spirit Who lives in us gives strength and energy to our bodies. This happens when we open our mouths and speak the Word.

Second Corinthians 4:13 (NIV) says, “It is written: ‘I believed; therefore I have spoken.’ With that same spirit of faith we also believe and

The Power of Words

It's been said that we spend one-fifth of our life talking and that the average person speaks between 25,000 and 30,000 words a day. Proverbs 18:21 says, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue. . . ." Our words are like seeds that bear either good or bad fruit.

- Words can motivate another to accomplish the impossible or hold someone in bondage.
- Words can bring peace or ignite strife.
- Words can build up or tear down.
- Words can produce joy or sorrow.
- Words can show appreciation or demonstrate disgust.
- Words enable us to receive God's promises or keep us from enjoying them.

Through our words we hold the power to change others' lives for better or for worse. Therefore, let us choose our words wisely.

WHEN WE SPEAK GOD'S WORD, WE ARE ACTIVATING, OR RELEASING, HIS POWER TO WORK ON OUR BEHALF.

therefore speak." I like to personalize Scripture any time I read it by inserting my name in the verse. Here I would say, "With that same spirit of faith Ken believes and therefore Ken speaks."

Many of us are familiar with Mark 11:23. Here it is from the New King James Version: "For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says."

Notice that Jesus used the word say in this verse three times and the word believe only once. This shows us that we need to place more emphasis on speaking the Word. Most Christians have the believing part down. Where we lack is in the speaking forth of our faith. This verse also indicates that we will have what we say—not what we hope for or what we think about.

Since God's power is activated when we speak His Word, let's be bold about it. Let's not speak His Word in a whisper; let's declare it emphatically and with conviction, regardless of our circumstances or how we feel.

WE CAN'T OUTTALK THE DEVIL IF WE DON'T KNOW WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS.

When the Enemy taunts us, let's respond to him with God's Word. When people slander us, let's determine to keep speaking the Word. When circumstances look too big to overcome, let's keep speaking the Word. God's Word is always the last word. And the one who has the last word wins. ♣

STANDING STRONG in Adversity

“ . . . Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord.”

—Romans 12:11

*“ . . . Never let your zeal flag; maintain the spiritual glow;
serve the Lord.”*

—Romans 12:11 (Moffatt)

Some “faith people” seem to think if you believe God, nothing bad will ever happen to you. Some have taught that if you have faith, you’re going to float through life on flowery beds of ease. However, if you live for God, sometimes you’ll have to swim upstream! Walking by faith is not always easy.

I remember some experiences I had along this line when I was in my early 30s after God called me into the field ministry in 1949 and 1950. In those first few years, God told me to preach in churches for awhile. So I held what we called church meetings, or revival meetings.

I remember one particular pastor asked me to hold a meeting for him. I thought, I don’t want to hold a meeting for that pastor. At a convention, right in front of everyone, I had heard him criticize people who taught about faith and healing and who ministered in healing services by the gifts of the Spirit.

At the time I thought, Doesn’t he know I minister like that? Some time after he said that, he invited me to come and hold a meeting in his church. I prayed, “Lord, I don’t want to go, because I know that

It's the most difficult thing in the world to preach faith and have a pastor sitting behind you on the platform breathing the hot breath of unbelief down your back.

I'll make furrows up and down the other way. Surely you don't want me to go!"

The Lord said, "I want you to go."

"Dear Lord," I said, "don't send me there! Send me anywhere else, but I don't want to go there. Besides, this man is an older minister—he's old enough to be my daddy."

But the more I prayed, the more the Lord said, "I want you to go."

Finally, I said, "All right. I'm going."

A young man and his wife who were graduates of a Bible college went with me. The woman played the piano and her husband led congregational singing. They also sang special songs.

After I preached the first night at the pastor's church, this couple told me, "We wondered if you were going to teach on faith and healing. We know this pastor, and we know he doesn't understand biblical faith and healing."

I had put it off as long as I could, but I couldn't put it off any longer. I knew in my spirit what God wanted me to teach on. I announced that I'd building was full, but that night they sat on the front row. They told me afterward, "We sat down front so we could see the pastor's face."

It's the most difficult thing in the world to preach faith and have a pastor sitting behind you on the platform breathing the hot breath of unbelief down your back. You don't even have to turn around; you can just feel it.

It's easy to endure when there is no adversity. You don't have to endure much then.

But experiences like that in life do you good. They toughen you up.

Paul told Timothy, ". . . endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ" (2 Tim. 2:3). This goes for every Christian. It's easy to endure when there is no adversity. You don't glow! I didn't dare turn around to look at that pastor. Actually, I could almost see his reactions on the faces of those in the congregation, because they were watching him. I could almost read every one of his reactions by how they reacted!

I just kept plowing for about 40 minutes. But then the pastor came alive. Suddenly he burst out and said, "Amen!" He jumped up and said, "Folks, Brother Hagin is right. Bless God, what Brother Hagin is teaching is right!" The pressure was off then, but it had been on the whole time before.

This wasn't the only occasion when I had to preach or teach under such circumstances. It seemed as if this happened to me a lot back then before people understood biblical faith and healing. Do you think that was easy? No! But you've got to maintain the glow in spite of circumstances, because circumstances won't always be pleasant. Sometimes God will require you to do things that may be tough

Following God's Plan

So often we do things because we think that's the way they ought to be done, and we fall flat on our faces. People fail because they have the wrong plan, purpose, and motive. But as we discover God's plans and purposes, we'll have His full blessings upon our endeavors.

Maintaining the Glow

It's important for Christians to be full of both the Word of God and the Spirit of God. We need the Word in our hearts and the anointing of God upon our lives.

Colossians 3:16 says, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you RICHLY. . . ." We're to "soak up" the Word just as a dry sponge soaks up water.

We are also instructed to be "fervent in spirit" (Rom. 12:11). The Moffatt translation says we are to "maintain the spiritual glow." We can't maintain the glow unless we are filled to overflowing with the Spirit. As we stay full of the Word and the Spirit, we will prosper in all we do and be used mightily in the last days.

sledding for a while. But enduring hardness will build character in you.

I remember a similar experience in another church. The pastor who had invited me to preach had announced to his congregation some time before I got there, "Ministers shouldn't call people out and tell them what's wrong with them! The very idea! Don't they know God doesn't heal like that?" (Of course, he was talking about ministering by the gifts of the Spirit.)

Although this pastor had invited me to hold a meeting in his church, I knew he didn't understand certain biblical principles of faith and healing. I knew when I started preaching I would be plowing his field crossways, but I also knew the Lord had sent me there, so I just kept teaching and plowing.

One night a man more than 80 years old was in the congregation. Before the service, the pastor briefly introduced me to him and told me he was the finest Christian he'd ever known.

That night I pointed to this older gentleman. (I didn't know him personally, except for the pastor's brief introduction.) I said, "The Lord shows me you have a double hernia. You've been operated on twice and it came back on you, and now you have a double rupture. If I'm wrong, just say so."

"No," he said, "you're right."

"The Lord told me to tell you to come down here," I said, "and when I lay hands on you, both ruptures will disappear instantly." He came down to the altar, I laid hands on him, and both ruptures disappeared instantly.

The pastor didn't understand this kind of ministry; he had told his congregation that God wouldn't heal people this way. The next night, however, he announced to his congregation, "Folks, I want you to hear me. I've been wrong. What Brother Hagin is teaching about faith and healing and the way he is ministering is right. If he calls you out, come on down to the front. If he calls me out, I'll come down too!"

The Lord had directed me to minister healing to that older gentleman. Do you think it was easy to do that in front of that congregation, knowing what the pastor had told them? No! But you've got to maintain the spiritual glow regardless of what people say about you. You've got to be fervent in the Spirit whether you feel like it or not!

You've got to be fervent in the Spirit whether you feel like it or not!

If you'll be fervent in spirit regardless of circumstances, you'll have a song in your heart and you'll be able to maintain the glow of the Holy Spirit and stand strong in the face of adversity. ♥

CARRYING THE Baton of Revival TO THIS GENERATION

Cameras flashed and onlookers waved and cheered as RHEMA Bible Training Center's class of 2009 entered the Tulsa convention center. Following a procession of instructors and parade of flags, 420 graduates marched into the arena. Their caps and gowns made it clear that they had successfully completed their training, and they were equipped and eager to enter the harvest fields of the earth. Seventeen of the graduates represented seven countries outside the United States: Canada, Colombia, Nigeria, Northern Ireland, Norway, South Africa, and Zambia.

Tad Gregurich, presiding over his first graduation as RHEMA's dean, welcomed those in attendance and prayed for the 2009 graduates. "We thank You not only for the effort, sacrifices, and accomplishments that have marked their paths to this point, but also for the destinies that lie before each one," he said, "for the divine purpose that calls them to walk boldly into the future, carrying faithfully the light that they have received. We thank You for the training that has been imparted to them, and we rejoice, knowing that as they apply what they have received, their lives, as well as the lives of every individual they come in contact with, will be changed dramatically. Tonight these graduates stand before a congregation, but tomorrow they will go forth to reach a generation."

After a time of praise and worship, Kenneth W. Hagin welcomed the graduates and their families and friends. He then introduced the commencement speaker, Douglas Crumbly, a 1996 RHEMA graduate and pastor of Journey Church in Acworth, Georgia. Rev. Crumbly challenged the graduates not to become sluggish and to remain faithful to the vision God placed within them.

Speaking from Hebrews 6:9-12 (NKJV), he encouraged the graduates to imitate leader position.”

Pastor of Journey Church

their RHEMA instructors, and he urged them to faithfully take on the role of a leader.

"The Bible is literally telling us as ministers of the Gospel that we are not to be sluggish, lazy, stupid, or slothful, and the way to do that is to imitate people who have used their faith and inherited the promises of God," Rev. Crumbly said. "For the last two or three years you've watched your instructors and Pastor and Mrs. Hagin inherit the promises of God. When you don't know what to do, just imitate them.

"God is elevating and launching every one of you into a position where there are going to be people watching and imitating you," he added. "You as a leader must live godly and use your faith so that other people who are following you will not become sluggish as well. Tonight you graduate into the leader position."

Did You Know?

This year marked the 35th graduation of RHEMA Bible Training Center with 420 graduates from eight countries.

“For We are God’s fellow workers. . . .”

—1 Cor. 3:9 (NIV)

Rev. Crumbly said that as he looked out at the graduates, he saw the faces of champions and visionaries looking back at him—people who were going to make it hard for those in the world to go to hell. But he also warned the graduates to protect everything God had placed within them during their training time.

“God has birthed vision in your heart while you’ve been here at school—vision to go to places and change the world and destinies of people you come in contact with,” Rev. Crumbly said. “When you leave here you’re going to have to grab the truths in God’s Word, because there is a real devil and there are real people who will try to impede your progress to fulfill the vision that God has put in your heart. You may not know how or when [it will come to pass], but someone is crying out to Jesus right now for you to launch out and take that vision that God has put into your heart to set people free!”

“ . . . SOMEONE IS CRYING OUT TO JESUS RIGHT NOW FOR YOU TO LAUNCH OUT AND TAKE THAT VISION THAT GOD HAS PUT INTO YOUR HEART TO set people free!”

Rev. Crumbly concluded, “Students: from everyone in this room, from the hearts of the Hagins, from all of the pastors that graduated from here, from all of the instructors, from every usher and secretary at RHEMA—let’s make history together.”

Prior to the official presentation of the class of 2009, Dean Gregurich explained the significance of the red track-and-field relay batons the graduates received as they walked across the platform. In a message Rev. Hagin delivered to the students at the beginning of the year, he traced the history of revival through the generations and challenged each student to carry the baton of revival to this generation.

An inscription on each baton reads, “I commit today to carry the baton of revival to this generation. I will carry the banner of faith and God’s power to a lost and dying world. This is my time to do all God has called me to do.”

Rev. Hagin addressed the graduates after they received their batons, admonishing them through the Word of God. He finished with these words: “Tonight, you embark on a journey that only God knows the destination of. I charge you—be true to the Word of God. Be true to what you have learned these last few years at RHEMA, and go out and tear the devil’s kingdom up!”

In his benediction, Doug Jones, a member of RHEMA’s inaugural class and a long-time instructor, thanked God for the faithfulness He had shown in the life of each graduate and asked for continued faithfulness as each one goes out into the harvest fields. He also asked for inner strength for the graduates to enable them to walk worthy of the calling God had placed on their lives.

As graduates sang the RHEMA alma mater, the arena lights were dimmed and the class of 2009 held up small faux candles symbolizing their willingness to carry the light of the Gospel to the lost. The new RHEMA alumni exited the arena holding a candle in one hand and a baton in the other, eager to bear the flame of revival to the nations! ♡

Jesus told His disciples to ask the Father to send laborers into the world’s harvest fields. Word Partners are helping answer that prayer by supporting RHEMA Bible Training Center. RBTC USA equips hundreds of laborers each year to help reap the end-time harvest.

A Church You Can Call Home

PASTORS MARIA AND PAUL FOSLIEN
Living Word Family Church
Naples, Florida

Paul Foslien, a 1988 graduate of RHEMA Bible Training Center, along with his wife, Maria, started Living Word Family Church in Naples, Florida, in November 1998. Seventeen people attended the first service. More than 10 years later, the congregation is nearing 700. Paul credits his church's growth to consistency and simplicity.

"We've always stayed connected with where God put us, and I believe that's one of the reasons we've grown so quickly," Paul said. "We've stayed true to our roots—RHEMA. We try to keep things simple and do them really well. We don't overburden our people. We've never tried to do so many things that it taxes them. We've moved slowly."

Another factor contributing to Living Word's growth is the friendliness of its staff and congregation. Visitors often comment that it is the friendliest church they've ever attended. Many churches are friendly, but Paul makes it a top priority for his staff and leaders to be friendly and welcoming to those in attendance. He knows

God, I give my heart
my life to You
And I'll never stop
Never stop giving it all to You

God, I give my heart
my life to You
And I'll never stop
Never stop giving it all to You from experience what it's like not to feel welcome.

At one church for which Paul served as guest minister, no one welcomed him or introduced themselves before the service. Paul doesn't want anyone visiting Living Word to feel the way he did that day.

"When you come to our church, you will feel like family," he said. "When you walk in, you're going to be welcomed, not just by me, but by our staff and people. It doesn't matter who you are—you will be accepted."

First-time visitors to Living Word receive an e-mail thanking them for attending a service and asking them four questions:

- What did you notice first?
- What did you like best?
- What was your overall impression?
- How can we pray for you?

From the growth of the church, it's obvious that many visitors return. And many of them become active members because of the balance the church demonstrates.

In addition to church services, Living Word provides other opportunities for members to get to know one another. From bowling to home groups, Paul tries to have plenty of ways available for people in his church to connect with one another.

"We are very fellowship-focused," he said. "We really try to build the church as a community. We focus on building relationships. Everything we do is along those lines. People want to be a part of something, so we do our best to make our church something people would want to be a part of."

Paul knows that none of what the church does would be possible without his staff and leaders. Living Word has a full-time staff of 13, a godsend according to the pastor. "To me, everything we do starts with our staff," he said. "I have a great group of leaders. We have grown because of the people God brought to us."

In 2008, Paul became a regional director for the RHEMA Ministerial

Association International, a position he is excited to have. On top of being eager to be an extension of RHEMA to his fellow alumni in Florida, Paul sees the position as an opportunity to help someone facing a hard time in life. About eight years ago, Paul experienced an extremely difficult time in ministry, so he knows the importance of having another minister there to stand by your side.

"No other minister in our city reached out to us," he said. "You need people in your life who care and will be there for you. My wife and I are blessed to be in this position because we don't want what happened to us to happen to others. We want people to know that RHEMA is here for them. It's not just, 'We want you,' but 'We want to help you.'"

The Fosliens also lived on the mission field for three years. From 1993 to 1996, Paul and Maria lived in Belarus where they distributed more than three million of Kenneth E. Hagin's books which had been translated into Russian. They also pioneered a church that quickly grew into the hundreds.

"Everything we've done, from attending RHEMA until the day we started the church, has been training," he said. "The time we spent at RHEMA, and the time we spent in Belarus—it all helped prepare us for what we're doing now. The good and the bad of everything we've been through really formed how we pastor."

"I wouldn't be where I'm at without the training I received at RHEMA," Paul added. "My RHEMA training is what prepared me for ministry and for life. If it wasn't for the development, spiritual growth, and everything else RHEMA put inside of me, I would not be here today." ❧

Climbing OUT From Under a Dark Cloud

// LYNETTE HAGIN

One day my best friend, Lanell, called me because she was having a terrible day. She was feeling down and discouraged. As soon as I answered the phone, she blurted out, “Do you like me?”

I thought, What planet is she coming from? But I said, “Of course I like you. Why?”

“Oh, I’m just having some problems today. I feel like nobody likes me, and I had to talk to somebody who likes me.”

“Yes, I like you,” I assured her and then added, “I want to tell you a funny story.” I began to tell Lanell one funny story after another until she burst out laughing.

After a few minutes, she said, “I really needed to laugh today!”

Sometimes we all need a good laugh to cheer us up and get us out of the depressing moods that try to come against us. Proverbs 17:22 says, “A merry heart does good, like medicine, But a broken spirit dries the bones” (NKJV). I want to tell you a story that illustrates what that scripture is saying.

All my life I was extremely close to my father. I was definitely “daddy’s girl.” One of the most devastating times I have ever been through was when my precious daddy passed away. Even though he was 89 years old, almost 90, I wasn’t ready for him to go

Turning Stumbling Blocks Into Stepping-Stones

Sometimes in life we have to hold on tightly to the Lord's hand and say, "Okay, God, we're going through these bumps, but pretty soon we'll have smooth riding."

I've determined not to let bumps cause me to stumble. Instead of stumbling blocks, they're going to be my stepping-stones. I'll step higher and higher until I climb on top of those obstacles.

We can triumph over the bumps in life. I've never seen a successful person who didn't have to overcome some bumps and even some roadblocks along the way.

If you're experiencing mammoth trials, know that the Enemy is just trying to stop you from becoming the success God created you to be. If you'll climb up on those bumps and use them as stepping-stones, you can reach the top of every mountain the Lord has prepared for you.

home to be with the Lord. It was like cutting my earthly umbilical cord, and it hurt.

I'll never forget the Sunday after Dad's memorial service. My husband and I had visited a church in Dallas that morning, but somehow I hadn't received the touch I needed from the Lord. When we got back to the hotel where we were staying, a horrible feeling of depression started to close in on me.

I recognized what it was and knew I had to do something about it. I turned on the television, hoping to find something uplifting to watch, but I couldn't find any Christian TV stations. As I flipped through the channels, I kept thinking, Lord, I need to hear something that lifts my spirits.

Then Art Linkletter's face flashed across the screen, and I remembered how much I had always enjoyed watching his TV programs. I admired him very much, so I began listening to what he was saying. He was celebrating his 90th birthday, and he looked wonderful.

He began to describe what had helped him be a success through the years. He said, "I've never stopped learning. I'm always looking for something new to learn. And I've always kept laughter in my heart."

By the time I finished listening to Art Linkletter that day, I was laughing and my spirits were lifted.

That program wasn't exactly the kind of encouragement I expected to receive from the Lord. But it proves that God is not limited in what He can use to cheer us up and encourage our hearts.

That's why it's so important for us to be looking for even the tiniest things God may send our way to encourage us. We need to reach out and receive every bit of encouragement we can from the Lord.

I remember a situation in our ministry several years ago when one of our departments had somehow gotten off track. The whole department seemed to be in chaos. As I worked to get things back in proper order, I could feel a cloud of depression trying to come over me.

I told some of my staff members, "Please get me some music tapes! I need to listen to joyful, upbeat music. I don't want to hear any slow songs. I need to hear lively praise music to help get my spirits back up again."

We started bringing music tapes to work with us and played uplifting praise music all day long. I also encouraged them, saying, "We're not going to get depressed. We're going to get ourselves back on the right course with joy!" And we did!

It is important that we reach our divine destination in life. But it is just as important that we reach that destination with joy! The Apostle Paul said in Acts 20:24, "None of these things move me . . . so that I might finish my course with joy. . . ." If it was important to Paul to finish his course with joy, it should be important to us too.

Isaiah 61:3 tells us that God has given us a "praise cure" to help us overcome the depression and discouragement that try to come against us in this life. He's given us ". . . the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. . . ." The Lord is saying to us, "Praise Me during those dark and troubled times, and I will set you free."

If you want to rise above the dark clouds of depression and discouragement,

SOMETIMES WE ALL NEED
a good laugh
TO CHEER US UP . . .

ment, surround yourself with music that ministers to you. There's nothing like praise music that speaks directly to your heart.

When Satan attacks you with discouragement and depression, begin to give praise to God. Surround yourself with uplifting praise music. Tell the Lord how much you appreciate Him. And remember that the Lord inhabits the praises of His people (Ps. 22:3).

We respond to the praises of our children, don't we? When a little girl crawls up in daddy's lap and says, "I love you so much, Daddy. You're such a great daddy!" his heart just melts. And when she gets to the point of asking him for something, the answer usually is, "Oh, honey, whatever you want." And he gives her even more than she asks for.

When we praise our Heavenly Father, He opens His arms to us and says, "Oh, child, you can have whatever you want. Is that all you want? I have so much more for you!" Then

He surrounds us with His presence, and that's when the clouds begin to lift, because in His presence there is fullness of joy (Ps. 16:11). Those dark clouds of depression and discouragement can't stay in the presence of our God!

Have you ever experienced depression? If you have, you know how the dark clouds can come rolling in on you. Everything around you starts getting darker and darker. If you allow yourself to be engulfed in that darkness, it will totally surround you. But thank God, the Lord has made a way for you to climb out from under those dark clouds.

If you're feeling down and discouraged, call on the Lord, and He will give you the encouragement you need. Start praising Him and listening to praise music, and you will feel your spirit lifted. And always make room for laughter in your life.

Yes, you may walk through the valley, but you're not supposed to camp there. You're supposed to cross over to the other side.

On the other side there is joy, peace, and an assignment from the Lord. Just ask Him to let that assignment burn so brightly in your heart that it will light your path all the way to victory! ♥

Whose Directions Are You Following?

Technology has given us GPS devices to help us find our way. But long before such tools existed, God provided a "positioning system" to guide us. In her encouraging new book, Lynette Hagin shows us how to find, follow, and enjoy the route God has mapped out for our lives.

Seed Thoughts

by Lynette Hagin

Walking with the Lord and following His plan for our lives is an exciting adventure. It is certainly a faith walk. The Apostle Paul reminded us several times in the Epistles that "the just shall live by faith," and Paul was a wonderful example of someone who did that.

However, as we walk by faith, at times all of us need to hear words of instruction, guidance, affirmation, and even comfort from God. I have heard people say, "God never talks to me." Most people have never heard His audible voice. However, He will talk to you in various ways if you will simply take the time to understand how He speaks.

So often we expect God to speak in a spectacular way, and He chooses to speak in another way. I'm reminded of Elijah the prophet. Elijah experienced great victories. He challenged the prophets of Baal and won. He climbed to the top of Mount Carmel and prayed earnestly for rain to end a three-year drought, and the Lord answered that prayer. And he outran the king's chariot.

Just after these successes, Elijah received an unexpected jolt: Jezebel swore that she would have him killed. Fear replaced joy and Elijah began running again, but this time for his life. He sat down under a juniper tree and had a pity party. He even asked the Lord to take his life (1 Kings 19:4). An angel ministered twice to his physical needs. Then the Bible says, "So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he traveled forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God. There he went into a cave and spent the night. And the word of the Lord came to him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He replied, "I have been very zealous for the Lord God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too." The Lord said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake came a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper. When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave. Then a voice said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" (1 Kings 19:8-13 NIV)

Through a gentle whisper, God ministered to Elijah. Some would have looked for God to speak in the wind, and when they didn't hear anything, they might have closed their ears. Others would have listened for His voice in the earthquake or the fire. And when they didn't hear, they would have said, "Well, I guess God is not going to speak to me."

However, Elijah was so desperate to hear from God that he just kept listening. Suddenly a gentle whisper came, and God was in it. I encourage you to stop looking for God to speak to you in spectacular ways and start listening for the gentle whisper.

I recently needed a little encouragement myself. I prayed, "Lord, I just need to hear from You. I need to feel Your presence." It had rained in Tulsa for two solid weeks, and another week of rain was forecast. I am not one who enjoys the rain. The next day was my birthday. As I awakened, the sunshine beamed into my bedroom. There was no rain that day—only sunshine. At midnight it began to rain again. I realized that God was speaking to me through the sunshine, telling me that He loved me so much that He had provided sunshine on my special day. Some would think this was just a coincidence, but I knew that God was speaking to me.

Recently my daughter, Denise, was missing her grandmother who passed away two years ago. She needed comfort from the Lord. Suddenly a butterfly flew past her face. Denise remembered that her grandmother loved any item that was decorated with butterflies. Seeing that butterfly made her smile and realize that God was comforting her.

God cares about us. He knows our every thought, desire, and longing. He will use ordinary things to speak to us. Let's be sensitive to recognize His voice.

How Sharp Is YOUR SWORD?

Hebrews 4:12 tells us that the Word of God is living and powerful and SHARPER THAN ANY TWO-EDGED SWORD. God's Word (the Bible) is a weapon that God intends for you to use against your spiritual enemy, the Devil. But if you rarely read it or study it, how effective can this weapon be for you?

Let's imagine for a moment that the only way you can "sharpen" your sword is by reading and studying your Bible. That being the case, underline the phrase below that best describes the "sharpness" of YOUR sword.

- A. Couldn't cut through warm butter.
B. A paper cut would hurt more.
C. Sharper than any two-edged Popsicle stick.
D. So sharp that it inflicts pain on the devil every time I use it.

If you underlined A, B, or C then it's time for you to "sharpen" your sword. Second Timothy 2:15 tells us to "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." Read and study God's Word and keep your sword SHARP!

Forgetting Something?

All of the soldiers above look like they're ready to fight, but each one of them is forgetting at least one item from the full armor of God that we find in Ephesians chapter 6. See if you can find the items that each one is missing.

Think about it . . . God never intended us to retreat from the enemy or there would be protection for our back. Have been retreating from the enemy because there is no protection for your backside in the armor of God.

ANSWERS:

You Figure It Out

Based on what you know about the armor of God in Ephesians chapter 6, how can you tell that this soldier retreated from the enemy? Think it through carefully.
