Not Just Words

Do you remember the word God gave to Abraham—"Your descendants shall be as numerous as the sand on the seashore and the stars in the sky"? (See Gen. 22:17.) Those were not just words. They were words from Heaven. And they were full of God's miracle-working power!

Every time Abraham looked up into the night sky, he was reminded of God's promise. The condition of his own body and the deadness of his wife Sarah's womb had no effect on him whatsoever. Romans 4:3 says, "Abraham believed God. . . ." And after many years of waiting, the promise became a reality when his son Isaac was born.

Many people start out believing God, but when the answer doesn't come in the next 30 minutes or the next few days, they begin to ask cautiously skeptical questions. Because of outside pressures and natural circumstances, we have all allowed ourselves to ask such questions. But we need to plunge into the promises of God with abandonment!

What do I mean by that? When some people go swimming, they put their toe in the water to see if it's warm enough for them. But I've always just jumped in! It's going to be the same temperature whether you put your foot in or your whole body in.

That's the way a lot of people are with the promises of God. They sort of poke around the edges. But as with swimming, to get the benefits, we can't just stick our foot in. We've got to plunge in! When the pressure is on—when lack, sickness, or impossibility stare us in the face—we need to plunge into the promises of God.

Remember, these words from the Bible are not just some ancient history lesson. They're not just nostalgic memories or a crutch for the weak. These words, these promises, are words from Heaven. They're words from the Living God!

And every time we read these words, we should look upon them as Spirit and life. We should look upon them as full of power—as words from our Heavenly Father—and we should realize that these words are God speaking to us today!

WHO'S IN CHARGE? WE ARE!

It seems as though we can't turn on the television or radio without hearing about tragic events happening in the United States and around the world. At the same time, we hear people say, "God is in charge." Others counter that claim with, "If God is in control, He sure has things in a mess!"

What many people don't understand is that God is not the one who is in control. In Second Corinthians 4:4, Satan is called "the god of this world," and he is the one who is wreaking havoc around the globe.

The good news is that through Jesus' death on the Cross and resurrection from the grave, He conquered Satan and all his cohorts. Before Jesus ascended into Heaven, He said, ". . . All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me" (Matt. 28:18 NIV).

Jesus then delegated His authority over demonic powers to those who call on His Name. His commission to believers everywhere is to preach the Gospel and use His authority to cast out devils and lay hands on the sick (Matt. 28:19-20; Mark 16:15-18).

Power vs. Authority

Jesus said to His disciples in Luke 10:19, "I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you." Although the word power is used twice in the King James translation of this verse, a better way to translate the first part of this scripture would be, "I have given you AUTHORITY . . ."

What is the difference between power and authority? Power is strength or force. And authority is delegated power.

When we have been given authority to do something, we have been authorized to accomplish a task. We may not necessarily have the physical strength to do what we have been asked to do, but we have been empowered to do the job.

For example, a police officer who is directing traffic does not have the physical strength to stop a car or truck. However, he can blow a whistle, hold up his hand, and traffic will come to a screeching halt. Why? Because of the authority represented by the badge he wears on his uniform.

You see, the value of authority rests in the power behind that authority. The police officer's authority lies in the power of the city or state that he represents.

Using Your Authority

With authority comes responsibility. And this is where a lot of Christians fall short. They don't like the responsibility that comes with the authority they have been given. By that I mean, they want others to pray and speak for them.

We are told in James 4:7, "Resist the devil." This verse does not say anything about our pastor resisting the devil for us. It does not tell us to call every prayer group in the country and have them resist the devil for us.

No, each one of us has to operate in our own authority. When we get into a tough situation, we must speak to it.

We must talk to the mountain. Through Christ, we have the authority to speak to every enemy that comes against us. We have the power to walk on top of them.

The Name of Jesus

We have been given the authority to use the Name of Jesus. There is power in that Name, and at the Name of Jesus every knee must bow (Phil. 2:10). Satan and all the demons in hell understand and tremble at the power and authority of that Name.

The power behind the Name of Jesus is the blood that was shed on the Cross of Calvary. We can overcome any situation because we have the power of the blood of Christ backing our authority to use the Name of Jesus. We triumph over the enemy because Christ has triumphed over Satan.

So let's rise up and exercise our authority as individual believers. And let's take our corporate authority as the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ. It's up to us to use our authority and walk in Christ's power. When we do, we will walk over adversity no matter what the devil tries to bring against us. 🍀

FAITH NUGGET

Our Mighty Weapons

Ephesians 6:10-17 outlines the armor of God that all Christians are instructed to put on. Here is what each piece of our armor symbolizes:

- The girdle of TRUTH (v. 14) represents a clear understanding of God's Word.
- The breastplate of RIGHTEOUSNESS (v. 14) represents our righteousness through Jesus and our obedience to God's Word.
- Having our feet shod with the preparation of the GOSPEL OF PEACE (v. 15) symbolizes our faithful proclamation of God's Word.
- The shield of FAITH (v. 16) represents our complete safety under the blood of Christ.
- The helmet of SALVATION (v. 17) refers to our hope of salvation (1 Thess. 5:8) through Jesus Christ.
- The sword of the Spirit (v. 17) is the WORD OF GOD, which is used offensively. The other parts of our armor are mainly defensive weapons.

Dressed in the armor of God, we are prepared to withstand every attack of the enemy.

God's Power Is for Today!

In this dynamic new CD series, Kenneth W. Hagin challenges us to realize that today is the day of the outpouring and demonstration of the Spirit of God! When we walk in the fullness of God's Spirit, we will see His power manifested in our everyday lives.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO APPLY THIS YEAR!

WHAT'S NEW AT RHEMA Bible Training Center?

In 1974, Kenneth W. Hagin sat down at a makeshift desk with a typewriter and his old Bible college handbook to write the curriculum for RHEMA Bible Training Center. At the time, he had no idea of the impact the school would have on the world. Neither did his father, the late Kenneth E. Hagin, who once told a minister friend, "Think about what we could do if we trained 40 or 50 students a year!"

Today, a little over 35 years later, there are more than 42,000 RBTC graduates worldwide. RHEMA is influencing nations, but there's still room for growth. Beginning next month, RBTC is adding three exciting new programs.

Second- and Third-Year Biblical Studies

Biblical Studies, a new second- and third-year program, is an option open to all first- and second-year RBTC graduates. The Biblical Studies curriculum includes 24 in-depth Bible courses not currently offered:

- Torah 1: Genesis & Exodus
- Torah 2: Leviticus–Deuteronomy
- History: Joshua–Ruth
- Pre-Exile: Samuel–Chronicles
- Post-Exile: Ezra–Esther
- Psalms
- Proverbs: Wisdom Literature
- Isaiah
- Jeremiah
- Ezekiel
- Minor Prophets
- Synoptic Gospels
- Acts
- Romans
- First & Second Corinthians
- Galatians

- Philippians & Colossians
- First & Second Thessalonians
- Hebrews
- James
- First & Second Peter
- Johannine Epistles
- Pastoral Epistles
- Revelation & Daniel

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE BIBLICAL STUDIES PROGRAM, VISIT WWW.RBTC.ORG OR CALL (918) 258-1588, EXT. 2260.

Spanish-Speaking Bible School

Centro de Entrenamiento Bíblico RHEMA Español, USA (CEB RHEMA) is a school dedicated to helping fulfill the Great Commission—the call to reach a lost and dying world with the precious message of Jesus Christ. Taught entirely in Spanish, CEB RHEMA is an extension school of RHEMA Bible Training Center USA. Students are taught by both precept and example to apply the principles of God's Word in their everyday lives.

Courses meet in the evenings Monday through Friday (excluding Wednesday) from 6:30 to 9:20. There are three 50-minute classes each evening. An English composition class is also being offered.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT WWW.CEBRHEMA.ORG OR CALL (918) 258-1588, EXT. 2460.

Partnership With Southwestern Christian University

RHEMA Bible Training Center is partnering with Southwestern Christian University and, beginning this fall, SCU will offer a Bachelor of Science degree-completion program and a master's degree program on the RBTC campus. During their two years of training, all RBTC second-year graduates will have earned 40 credit hours that will transfer to SCU.

The bachelor's degree program offers four majors to choose from: Biblical Leadership, Human and Family Services, Business Administration, and Business Leadership. Students who already have a bachelor's degree can earn a Master of Ministry degree in either Life Coaching or Leadership. Degrees can be completed in as little as 16 months by attending class one night a week from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. At this pace, students finish a three-credit-hour course every five weeks.

"We are excited about the partnership," said Dr. Ed Huckleby, president of Southwestern Christian University. "We think that it has great long-term potential. It provides an opportunity for RHEMA students to complete their training and move into a degree program and complete a bachelor's degree or a master's degree on the campus at RHEMA."

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY AT WWW.SWCU.EDU OR CALL (405) 470-2636.

TAD GREGURICH ▶

here's a verse in Acts chapter 20 that I encourage all of us to commit to memory and always endeavor to live by. Let's read the two preceding verses with it so we can see exactly what the Apostle Paul was experiencing when he wrote these powerful words.

ACTS 20:22-24

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 BUT NONE OF THESE THINGS MOVE ME. . . .

I pray these words in verse 24 will be indelibly impressed upon our minds and hearts, because so many things in life try to move us. The devil will use many things to try to get us off track. We will have many opportunities in our lifetime to say, "It's not worth it." But it's during those times that we have to stand strong and declare by faith, "None of these things move me!"

We're not always going to have someone who will pat us on the back and assure us, "You can make it through this."

At times we'll be out in the middle of nowhere, facing the fiery darts of the enemy with no one at our side. That's when we're going to have to stir ourselves up to pray and believe God. To succeed in our Christian walk, we must not allow ourselves to be moved by those things.

The enemy constantly tries to discourage us. He talks to our minds and tries to play havoc with our thoughts. He does everything in his power to try to block us from finishing the race God has set before us.

When the enemy tries to discourage us, we must set our face like flint and determine in our heart that Satan will not succeed. He will not deter us or stop us from fulfilling God's call.

How are we supposed to deal with the attacks of the devil? First Peter 5:8 says, "Be careful—watch out for attacks from Satan, your great enemy. He prowls around like a hungry, roaring lion, looking for some victim to tear apart" (TLB).

Satan wants to tear our families, our health, and our financial situations apart. Ultimately, he's trying to tear God's Kingdom down. He wants to pluck everyone he can from the Kingdom of God and take them captive in his kingdom.

Sometimes it seems as if we're dealing with a barrage of battles. But what does the Word say in First Peter 5:9? "Stand firm when he [Satan] attacks. Trust the Lord; and remember that other Christians all around the world are going through these sufferings too" (TLB).

What should we do when the enemy is attacking us? We need to speak the Word of God. When Jesus was tempted by the devil in the wilderness, what did He do? He said to Satan, "It is written . . ." (Matt. 4:4). He answered the devil's attacks with the Word. And we must learn to combat the devil's attacks the same way Jesus did—by speaking the Word of God.

I've discovered that it's impossible for me to listen to the devil if I'm quoting the Word. When the enemy starts talking to me, I simply quote God's Word to him, just as Jesus did!

NEW BOOK
ALONG THE WAY

LET NOTHING
MOVE YOU

nothing

Something else I do when the devil begins to taunt me is to remind myself of my calling from the Lord. Romans 11:29 says, "For God's gifts and His call are irrevocable. [He never withdraws them when once they are given, and He does not change His mind about those to whom He gives His grace or to whom He sends His call]" (Amplified).

God has not changed His mind about us. It doesn't matter what His divine call is upon our lives—whether it's a call to business, to the teaching profession, or to the ministry. We must never underestimate His calling.

If we don't know what God has called us to do, we can rest assured that He has called us, first and foremost, to be His children. We're in the most important service there is—the service of the Lord Jesus Christ!

He's called us out of darkness into His marvelous light (1 Peter 2:9). He's called us into the Kingdom of His dear Son (Col. 1:13). In other words, God has called us to be Christians, and what a great calling that is! Reminding ourselves of our calling in Christ will help us say with boldness and conviction, "None of these things move me," no matter how much the enemy attacks.♥

Have you ever stood strong in the midst of adversity? If so, we would like to know how you did it. You can submit your testimony at www.rhema.org. Click on Contact Us/Submit a Testimony.

FAITH NUGGET

Full of the Word and the Spirit

Adverse circumstances come to us all. What we do with those circumstances determines the outcome of our lives. We can allow them to move us and shake us. Or we can refuse to allow adversity to defeat us and keep us from our destination.

Here are two simple things we can do to keep from being moved by the devil's attacks:

- 1 BUILD OURSELVES UP IN THE WORD OF GOD. We can keep ourselves full of the Word. When that Word is hidden in our hearts, it will come forth in times of crisis.
- 2 BUILD OURSELVES UP BY PRAYING IN THE HOLY SPIRIT (JUDE 20). We can keep ourselves built up in the spirit by continually praying in tongues. This causes us to become more sensitive to the Spirit's voice.

What Kind of Legacy Are We Leaving?

How will others remember us? As well-dressed or well-educated? The real measure of our success lies in the lives that are changed because of our influence. In her new book, Lynette Hagin shows us how we can make an eternal difference for someone else.

THIS GENERATION

*I vow this day to lift the banner high
And to walk in the truth sown into my life.*

— FROM THE RHEMA ALMA MATER

With the words of their alma mater ringing in their hearts, RHEMA Bible Training Center's 36th graduating class has been sent out into all the world to preach the Gospel (Mark 16:15).

As loved ones cheered and trumpets sounded, 351 second-year and 70 third-year graduates walked expectantly into the Tulsa Convention Center Friday, May 21, to enjoy a night capping their effort, sacrifice, and determination. Among those graduates were 42 international students representing 27 countries.

Excitement filled the air as Dean Tad Gregurich opened commencement ceremonies with prayer and those present then joined in a powerful time of praise and worship. Speaking from his heart, school President Kenneth W. Hagin welcomed the graduates and their friends and families. Addressing those graduating, he said, "When you walk from this hall, you will step into life anew. Continue to follow God the same way you followed Him to come train at RHEMA. As you walk the road of life with God, He will be right on time and everything will be all right. I'm not going to tell you there will be no bumps or trials. But if you are faithful to apply what you have been taught about believing God's Word, you will always be the victor!"

Joe Cameneti, a 1983 RHEMA graduate and pastor of Believers Christian Fellowship in Warren, Ohio, echoed this sentiment in his commencement address.

"I exhort each and every one of you to go forward," Rev. Cameneti told graduates. "Hook up with a church and impact the world, because that's what God has called us to do.

"There are three Ps I want to give you that will help you have a successful ministry. The first is PRAYER. Prayer is not a fruitless exercise that God gave us to perform in order to determine whether we're faithful. Prayer is the vehicle that releases God to move in the earth. No matter what situation we face, when we pray it's going to flee before the awesome power of God.

"The second P is PEOPLE. Jesus made an incredible statement in Mark 10:45: "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (NKJV). God created us to serve. That's how we shine our lights (2 Cor. 4:6). Remember how important people are to God, and understand the impact we can have as we lay our lives down and begin to serve.

"The final P is PERSEVERANCE. Matthew 13:20-21 says that persecution and troubles come because you and I receive the Word. The devil will come to steal the Word and try to cause us to back down. Having done all to stand, we must stand therefore (Eph. 6:13-14). No matter what comes at us, we must stand our ground and never stop.

"So never back down! Don't let the devil say you can't. You can! The thing God created you to do you will do! And you will rock and shake this world! Whatever God has spoken to your heart, I encourage you to walk on the water as Peter did and watch God be God."

Following Rev. Cameneti's address, the graduates came forward one by one to receive red track-and-field relay batons. The runner's batons symbolized their commitment to run their race, take their place in the end-time revival, and carry the message of faith they received at RHEMA to their generation.

After a final charge to the class by Kenneth W. Hagin from the Word and the benediction given by Craig W. Hagin, graduates marched out—batons in hand and candles held high—ready to go into the world and light it up for God.

 JOE CAMENETI
1983 Graduate

Mike Keyes boarded a plane in Tulsa in 1980 with a one-way ticket to the Philippines. He had $20 in his pocket and a footlocker with a few changes of clothes and his books and notes from RHEMA Bible Training Center. One thing he didn't have was the assurance that someone would pick him up at the airport.

While Mike was an RBTC student, a guest minister from the Philippines spoke to the student body. As Rudy Trigo began to address the students, the Lord spoke to Mike's heart: "After you graduate from school, go work with that man's ministry." Knowing he'd heard from God, over the next several months Mike wrote three letters to Rev. Trigo's ministry, but he never received a reply.

"When I left the United States, I still had not heard from him," Mike said. "I didn't know if he even knew I was coming. When I got to Manila, it was the loneliest moment of my life. I looked out the window and there were two guards with Uzi submachine guns 'greeting' the passengers.

"At that time I thought, My God, I'm on the other side of the world. What have I done? If I missed You, I'm in a world of hurt, because I have nowhere to go," Mike remembered. "Then the Lord spoke to my heart and said, 'Just relax. You are where I want you to be. You're doing exactly what I want you to do. I'll take good care of you.'"

After a flight from Manila to Cebu, Mike had gone as far as his money would take him. If no one was there to meet him, he would be stranded in a foreign country with $20. As Mike walked off the plane, he spotted a Filipino man holding a small, handwritten sign that read, Mike Keyes.

"I was never so happy to see a sign in my life," Mike said. "I shook the man's hand, and he said, 'You're Mike Keyes? We've been expecting you.'"

Those words struck him. "We've been expecting you?" If they had been expecting him, why had he never heard from anyone? Why did he fly halfway around the world not knowing if anyone would be there to meet him?

"It turns out that Rudy Trigo did receive my letters but he purposely did not answer them, because he wanted to know how serious I was about coming," Mike said with a smile. "He wanted to see if I had learned enough about faith to actually make the trip. Looking back, I am thankful and can appreciate his perspective. But at the time, I was not very amused."

Hitting the Ground Running

Mike's new sign-holding friend rented a hotel room for him that night, and the next afternoon they traveled four hours by boat to Tagbilaran. By 5:00 p.m. he was at Rudy Trigo's house, by 6:00 they were eating dinner, and by 7:00 Mike was teaching in the Bible school. And he hasn't slowed down since.

For two-and-a-half years Mike worked for that ministry teaching in the Bible school, holding crusades, and traveling throughout the islands ministering to as many churches as possible. Preaching in churches, getting people saved and healed, and casting out demons was the easy part. The hard part, many times, was getting to the churches.

"We would wade rivers, hike up mountains, and sleep on the ground using the Bible as a pillow," he said. "Many times it would be pouring rain and the pathways would become rivers of mud, and we'd be on our hands and knees clawing our way up the mountain with our Bible in our backpack. We'd get to a need to get to other areas that Rudy Trigo’s ministry wasn’t able to reach. In January 1983, Mike started his own ministry based out of Ozamiz City. His goal: find people who had never heard the Gospel.

“We are still looking for the places that haven’t been preached to, that haven’t been reached,” he said. “That will never change. We’ll do that until Jesus comes. We’ve gone to thousands of villages over the last 30 years. Everything we do is based on the foundation of winning souls.”

Mike estimates that during his time in the Philippines he has seen half a million salvations—a number he says is “conservative.” Of course, when miracles and healings are taking place during the services, salvations are likely to follow.

Miracles in Abundance

During one crusade, a man showed up with his dead baby boy. He had just left the hospital where they had told him there was nothing they could do for his son. The doctor informed him of a crusade taking place in a local park and suggested that maybe he should take his son there.

When the man arrived, Mike and his team were already praying for the sick. Thousands were in attendance and thronging the altar. Unable to get through the crowd, the desperate father handed his son to the person in front of him and watched as one person after another passed the infant overhead all the way to the platform.

Mike grabbed the lifeless baby and prayed, and the child came back to life! Not knowing who the baby belonged to, Mike gave him back to the person who had handed the infant to him, and he watched as the live baby was passed over the heads of the crowd back to his father.

During that same crusade, Mike witnessed a creative miracle unlike any he had ever seen. On the fourth day of the seven-day crusade, Mike and his team were praying for the sick when a teenager crawled up to his feet. He had no bones from his waist down.

“His legs were like noodles,” Mike said. “He was wearing pants, but his legs were just dragging behind.”

Mike bent down and prayed for the teen. When he did, God spoke to him and said, “Tell him to come back tomorrow.” Mike told him to come back the next day. The boy said he would, then turned and dragged himself back through the crowd. When he came back the following day, Mike prayed for him again, and God spoke the same words.

“I told him to come back the next day, and without hesitation he said he would,” Mike said. “Then he crawled back through the people. They were laughing at him, spitting on him, and stepping on him.”

On the second-to-last day of the crusade, the teenager once again pulled himself up to Mike’s feet. When Mike prayed for him, he heard God speak those same words for the third day in a row. Not understanding but trying to be obedient, Mike told the boy to come back tomorrow for the final day of the crusade, and he said he would.

Mike was standing on the platform on the last day of the crusade when he saw the teen pulling himself through the field to get to the meeting. God spoke to him and said, “He crawled in here today, but he will walk out.”

Mike started praying for the sick, and before long the boy was on the ground in front of him. Mike bent down and prayed for him, “In the Name of Jesus, be healed.” God told Mike to pick the boy up, and when he did, his legs dangled below his body like wet noodles.

God told Mike to take the boy over to a handrail on the edge of the platform, put the boy’s hands on the rail, and let go. When he did, the boy fell to the ground, boneless legs curled beneath him with his hands still grasping the rail. Mike told members of his staff, “Pray with him! He is walking out of here today!”

Mike returned to pray for the thousands of others who had come forward, but a minute later he heard a lot of people screaming and praising God. He turned and saw the young boy still grasping the handrail, but this time he was standing!

God could have healed him on the first day, but I think God wanted to let this boy develop his faith.”

If anyone would know about a great lesson in faith, it’s a man who left the United States with $20 in his pocket and a word from God. Mike believes if he hadn’t attended RBTC, he wouldn’t be able to do everything he’s doing now.

“The amount of help RHEMA gave me is beyond description,” he said. “Without that foundation, I don’t believe I would ever have been in a position to see any of this happen. If I had not been given such teaching on faith, I would never have had the strength to leave the U.S. with a one-way plane ticket. I consider RHEMA the platform that God used to train me to do the things that I’m doing.”

Mike’s son, Michael Keyes Jr., told his father he found true happiness only when he was ministering with his dad in crusades. In May, he completed his second-year studies at RHEMA Bible Training Center and walked across the same platform his father had 30 years earlier to receive his baton of revival to take to the world. When Mike Jr. boards a plane headed for the Philippines, someone will definitely be at the airport waiting with open arms to pick him up.♥

A Lesson in Faith

“I’ve thought about what would have happened if he had quit after the first, second, or third day,” Mike said. “He would still be crawling around. To me, it was a great lesson in faith about what you have to be prepared to do until the manifestation comes.

PRAYER REQUESTS

“We are believing for many more churches to invite me to come speak about who we are and what we do,” Mike said. “This is our primary source of ministry income. We are believing for a significant increase in monthly support, from individuals as well as churches or ministries. We are always believing God for the money to hold more crusades, update and upgrade our crusade sound systems and audio equipment, and acquire two vehicles to get us back and forth from these crusades.”

Whose Side Are You On?

TONY COOKE

“They came to John and said, ‘Rabbi, you know the one who was with you on the other side of the Jordan? The one you authorized with your witness? Well, he’s now competing with us. He’s baptizing, too, and everyone’s going to him instead of us.’

“John answered, ‘It’s not possible for a person to succeed—I’m talking about eternal success—without heaven’s help. You yourselves were there when I made it public that I was not the Messiah but simply the one sent ahead of him to get things ready. The one who gets the bride is, by definition, the bridegroom. And the bridegroom’s friend, his “best man”—that’s me—in place at his side where he can hear every word, is genuinely happy. How could he be jealous when he knows that the wedding is finished and the marriage is off to a good start?

“That’s why my cup is running over. This is the assigned moment for him to move into the center, while I slip off to the sidelines.”
 — JOHN 3:26–30 (MESSAGE)

“He must increase, but I must decrease.”

— JOHN 3:30 (NKJV)

John the Baptist was not territorial or defensive about his position, and he actually promoted Jesus in such a way as to encourage his own followers to transfer their loyalty to the Savior. In John’s Gospel we read, “Again, the next day, John stood with two of his disciples. And looking at Jesus as He walked, he said, ‘Behold the Lamb of God!’ The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus” (John 1:35–37 NKJV). John the Baptist did not use his ministry assignment to promote himself or build a personal following; he was actually pleased that his efforts contributed to the success of another person’s ministry.

Had John the Baptist been a man of lesser character, he could have been jealous when Jesus began to move into the spotlight. He could have thought, Wait a minute. I’m older than Jesus. I’ve been in ministry longer than Jesus. I’m the one who introduced Jesus to the public. I promoted Him, and now people are looking to Him instead of to me. John was willing to do the job God had assigned to him and was not bothered when Jesus began to receive more attention than he.

John the Baptist realized that “we” is more important than “me.” He had a Kingdom-mentality, not a self-mentality.

Far too often, people have a mentality only of self-preservation and self-promotion. Their top priority is revealed by their attitude, which is, “I’m going to defend my position and my popularity at all costs. It doesn’t matter if the Kingdom could be better served if I were to let someone else advance.”

Putting other people ahead of oneself can be hard on the flesh, but it exemplifies the kind of attitude that John the Baptist possessed. Whether it’s allowing the pastor to shine or allowing another team member to advance, we need to be willing to decrease at times so that others—especially the entire team as a whole—can increase. When we join our hearts, abilities, and efforts together, we’ll see God’s Kingdom greatly advanced in the earth.♥

Discover and Develop Greatness

Are we the servants, workers, and leaders in the Body of Christ that God intends us to be? In this powerful new curriculum, Tony Cooke explores the roles of Timothy and other biblical figures who accomplished the plan of God by serving others. The course includes 14 video lessons on five DVDs; 14 audio lessons on seven CDs; a paperback book; a large-format workbook; a leader’s guide; and an advertising poster.

Where Are You Seated?

(EDITOR'S NOTE: THIS ARTICLE WAS ADAPTED FROM KENNETH E. HAGIN'S BOOK THE TRIUMPHANT CHURCH.)

WE ARE SEATED WITH CHRIST
IN HEAVENLY PLACES.

JOINT-SEATING WITH CHRIST IS “far above” ALL PRINCIPALITIES AND POWERS OF DARKNESS.

Timeless
Teachings
of Kenneth E. Hagin

To learn more about the authority we have in Christ, visit www.rhema.org, click on Media, click on Rhema for Today, scroll down to More Articles, and look for Believer's Authority.

The Greatest Name

The key to our authority over the powers of darkness is the Name of Jesus. Believers have authority over the devil in that Name. Some Christians, however, have thought the Name of Jesus can be used almost like a magic charm one wears to ward off evil forces. Believers haven't really understood what they possess as their inheritance because of that Name.

All of Jesus' power and authority is invested in His Name, and He has authorized believers to use His Name (John 14:13-14).

We know Jesus has authorized us to use His Name in prayer because He said, ". . . Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you" (John 16:23).

Praying according to God's Word is one way believers take their place of authority in Christ on the earth. But Jesus also said of believers, ". . . In my name shall they cast out devils . . ." (Mark 16:17).

The devil knows he must bow to that Name. And he recognizes the authority we have in Christ because of that Name. But we must recognize our authority, exercise it, and stand against him in Jesus' Name for him to bow.

After Jesus was raised from the dead, the Bible says God highly exalted Him to a position of honor at His right hand and gave Him a Name that is above every name (Eph. 1:20; Phil. 2:9-11).

God not only gave Jesus a Name that is above every name, but at the Name of Jesus, every being in all three worlds—Heaven, earth, and hell—must bow and confess Jesus' lordship and dominion. God also seated Jesus in the highest position in the universe, at His Own right hand, and made Him head over all things (Eph. 1:19-22).

Our Position in Christ

How does Jesus' seating in the highest position in the universe affect us? Ephesians 2:6 says, ". . . And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. . . ."

We are seated with Christ in heavenly places. Joint-seating with Christ is "far above" all principalities and powers of darkness. Evil spirits can't influence believers who are seated with Christ in heavenly places!

Our seating and reigning with Christ is a position of authority, honor, and triumph—not failure, depression, and defeat.

Because we are believers, our seating with Christ is part of our inheritance now. This is where we are already seated, because when Jesus was seated in triumph, we were seated with Him.

The word hath in Ephesians 2:6 is past tense. God has already raised us up and made us sit in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. We will rule and reign with Christ in this life now—if we'll exercise our rightful authority.

Our position in Christ is already an accomplished fact. But we need to exercise the authority that belongs to us in that position of reigning with Christ over principalities and powers before it will profit us.

Our position as believers is one of joint-seating with Christ in heavenly places. That may not always be our circumstance, but that is our position.

If we want to rise above our circumstances, we must take advantage of our position in Christ.

Enthroned With Christ

Ephesians 2:6 in the Weymouth translation says that God ". . . raised us with Him [Jesus] from the dead, and enthroned us with Him in the heavenly realms as being in Christ Jesus. . . ."

God enthroned us with Jesus in the heavenly realms. Does that sound like a Church that is defeated and is still having to battle to gain mastery over Satan? No. God designed the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ to be triumphant, because we are sharers and partakers of Christ's victory over Satan.

Joint-Seating With Christ

Because we as believers are in Christ, when Jesus sat down at the right hand of the Father, we sat down with Him far above principalities and powers. The Church, the Body of Christ, is in Christ. The body is connected to the head. Jesus is the Head of His Body—the Church.

If Jesus—the Head—triumphed over the devil, is the Body of Christ to be any less triumphant since we are in Christ? Of course not! It is our legal right to enjoy joint-seating with Christ in heavenly places—in a position of authority and triumph far above all principalities and powers. If we will take advantage of our joint-seating with Christ, we will begin to triumph in life!

We don't have to try to be seated far above principalities and powers with Christ. We don't have to pray through to be seated with Christ in heavenly places. We don't have to struggle through or fight through demons to be seated in a place of victory with Christ.

Our position and seating in Christ is a fact. It has already happened. That position was attained for us through Jesus Christ. All we have to do is enjoy the rights and privileges that already belong to us as joint-heirs with Christ.

When we get the revelation of our position in Christ, what a difference it will make in our lives! We will no longer be the defeated Church. We will take our place as the triumphant Church, which was God's design from the foundation of the world.♥

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

RECENTLY I WAS IN a grocery store completing one of many tasks I had that day. The woman checking out in front of me recognized me and struck up a conversation. At the end of the chat session, she said something that I don't recall anyone else ever telling me. Out of her mouth came, "You must have a wonderful life." I thought, Lady, if you knew everything that I have to do today before I go to sleep tonight, you might have a different opinion about how wonderful my life is.

Then I began to meditate on how it seems that everyone looks at others and thinks, as the old adage goes, "The grass looks greener on the other side of the fence." Many years ago I realized that regardless of how someone's life or lifestyle might appear, everyone faces challenges. Life is not without problems. Hard times and hard places come to us all.

I will be the first to admit that none of us likes to experience difficulties and disappointments. But life has difficult and disappointing moments. Some allow such times to cause them to become bitter. However, during these times I have looked to examples in the Bible to help me successfully navigate through the difficulties.

Joseph is a wonderful example. We've heard the saying, "When life gives you lemons, make lemonade," and that is exactly what Joseph did. Even though Jacob considered Joseph his favorite child, that factor did not make life a bed of roses for Joseph. In fact, it thrust him into a long journey of difficult times. His brothers hated him and sold him into slavery. He ended up in Potiphar's house. It looked as though things were turning around for him until he would not stoop to commit sin. He was thrown into prison and it appeared that he was forgotten.

However, in spite of the circumstances Joseph always kept a positive attitude. He had confidence that God would turn this situation around for his good. Of course we know the end of the story. God not only turned things around for Joseph's good—He made him second-in-command over Egypt. Throughout all the difficulties, Joseph never became bitter toward his brothers for causing his life to be altered. And he was able to spare his family from the famine in the land.

David had similar experiences. He was anointed king of Israel, yet he was hunted like a criminal. King Saul hated him and tried to kill him. David was continuously on the run. And when David had an opportunity to kill Saul, he refused to do so. I am quite sure that both Joseph and David were tempted to wonder if God had forgotten them. I can imagine them thinking something like, God, I don't understand the path that I am going down.

We don't always understand the path in front of us. I did not understand the path that God was choosing for us when He called us to come to work for my father-in-law at Kenneth Hagin Ministries. Even though my husband and I knew that we were following the leading of the Lord, there were many challenges along the way. I always liked to see a five- or ten-year plan. But God chose to direct our steps simply one day at a time.

In order to follow peace in the midst of not understanding our journey, I had to adopt Proverbs 3:5 and 6 as my guide: "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." As I look back now at the journey the Lord has taken us on, I can say it truly is more than I could have ever thought, dreamed, or imagined. All my life I have had a love and compassion for people. But I never dreamed that I would be allowed to speak into the lives of thousands around the world.

You may be going through a hard place right now. You may be pondering, as I was, Where is this journey taking me? Place your trust in the Lord and allow Him to direct your life. It will not be without some tears. But as you place your trust and confidence in God, you will be able to say as the Apostle Paul wrote in Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." ♥

Fearless, Anointed, Inward-Led, Trustworthy Heirs of God

TEST YOUR MEMORY!

Memorize Ephesians 2:10 written below and when you have it memorized, cover the verse with your hand and then try to find all of the errors in the verse inside the box. "X" out wrong words that are used and put a circle where words are missing

"For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do". —Ephesians 2:10 (NIV)

FIX THIS "For we are God's workers, made in Jesus to do bad works, which God prepared in advantage for us". —Ephesians 1:10 (NIV)

You Were Created To . . .

Fill in the boxes to the right by finishing the sentences below. When you are done, the yellow boxes will tell you what you were created to do.

1. Fish were created to . . .
2. Bowling balls were created to . . .
3. Roosters were created to . . .
4. Questions were created to . . .
5. Axes were created to . . .
6. Teeth were created to . . .

what's the PURPOSE?

Do you know what the word "purpose" means? Simply put, PURPOSE is "the reason a thing was created for." Look at the items below and draw a line from each item to its PURPOSE (the reason it was created for) written below.

PURPOSES

- A The purpose of this item is to write on paper.
- B The purpose of this item is to keep people from getting wet when it rains.
- C The purpose of this item is to cut fabric and paper.
- D The purpose of this item is to bounce and to be shot into a goal.
- E The purpose of this item is to glorify God and to do good works.

That was easy, wasn't it?! Of course, each one of the items above can be used for other things besides its intended purpose. For instance, you can beat a pencil on a drum and it becomes a drumstick . . . but that is not what it was CREATED TO DO! Isaiah 43:7 says that YOU were created for God's glory, and Ephesians 2:10 says that YOU were "created in Christ Jesus for good works." You have a PURPOSE! SO, DO WHAT YOU WERE CREATED TO DO!

SIMILAR PURPOSES

The 12 items shown below may all be different, but under closer inspection there are four groups of items that have similar purposes. There are three items in each group. Can you find the four groups and tell what similar purposes they have?
