In Christ!

When God created Adam, He made him the way He intended for all of mankind to be—righteous, blessed, happy, and prosperous. Adam walked and talked with God. He had everlasting life. And everything that Adam had was supposed to be ours!

But when Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, he passed on to mankind a sinful nature. He passed on curses instead of blessings, captivity instead of liberty, poverty instead of prosperity, and sickness instead of health. As a result of his fallen condition, he passed on hell instead of Heaven to the whole human race!

Let me ask you today: Is there any hope for mankind? Is there any way to escape this sinful condition man inherited from Adam? Praise God, there is! God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, that we might be alive unto Him again! In Christ, we have been redeemed. In Christ, we have been made whole. In Christ, we find wisdom, strength, peace, and victory. In Christ, we have everything we need for this life and for the life to come!

It's only through the blood of Jesus Christ and the power of God that a man, woman, boy, or girl can escape the power of sin and death. Jesus took the sin, the shame, upon Himself on the Cross. And the power of His death, burial, and resurrection erases the old, flawed, sinful condition in every person who receives Him as Lord and Savior!

In Christ, everything that Adam lost is restored to us! If we're in Christ, we no longer have to be sick. In Christ, we no longer have to be in bondage. In Christ, our old nature no longer has to dominate us. We no longer have to accept the sin, sickness, curses, sadness, and troubles that were passed on to us through Adam's sin. When things pertaining to his sinful nature try to invade our lives, we need to rise up and say, "I do not accept that because I'm free from the kingdom of darkness. I'm redeemed from sin by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Peter 1:17-19)!

Honoring God in Our Bodies

THE CHURCH AT CORINTH was in one of the most immoral cities of its day. Unfortunately, the immorality and sin of that city got into the church. In an effort to correct what was happening, the Apostle Paul wrote to the Corinthians and said, “Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s” (1 Cor. 6:19–20).

In these verses, Paul reminds us that our body belongs to the Lord and that we are to glorify God by not allowing our body to sin. After we get saved, however, our flesh often wants to go right on doing the things it did beforehand. But it’s up to each one of us to keep our body under control.

Even Paul, the apostle who wrote half of the New Testament, said in First Corinthians 9:27, “I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.” This great man of God—who did more single-handedly to spread the Gospel than any other person—also had to keep his body under. We are not any different from Paul. Our body naturally wants to do things that are not right. But we must control those fleshly desires and not give in to them. We must not let our body rule us; we must rule our body.

THE BATTLE OF THE FLESH

Our body, however, isn’t who we really are. We are a spirit being who possesses a soul and lives in a body. If we were just a physical being, Paul would have said, “I keep myself under and bring myself into subjection.” Instead, he said, “I keep my body under.”

When we talk about keeping the body under, folks usually think of sexual sins. While those are included, they are only a part of it. Our spirit being was made new when we were born again, but our body still has the unrenewed influence of the old Adamic nature.

Our flesh can have the attitude, “If you hit me, I’ll hit you. If you spit on me, I’ll spit on you.” If we don’t control our flesh, before we know it, we’ll be spitting

Our Helper

Before Jesus ascended into Heaven, He told His disciples that a “Comforter” would come and be with them. “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever” (John 14:16). We later see in Scripture how the Holy Spirit came to the earth and dwelt inside of believers (Acts 2:1–4).

The word Comforter in John chapter 14 means “helper.” We are no longer helpless, because the Holy Spirit—our Helper—lives inside of us. As a helper, the Holy Spirit won’t do the job Himself; His job is to help us.

We are the custodians of our bodies and we have to take the initiative to deal with our flesh. When we make a move to do that, the Greater One living inside of us will help us overcome our flesh.

God wouldn’t ask us to do something we couldn’t do.

We can get a better understanding of this in Romans 1:24: “Wherefore God also gave them up to UNCLEANNESS through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves.” Men lusting after men and women lusting after women is called uncleanness in Scripture. Paul—prompted by the Holy Spirit—is telling us to glorify God by not permitting our body to commit these acts of uncleanness.

It’s up to each one of us to keep our body under control.

When the Holy Spirit tells us to glorify God in our body, that means we can do it. God wouldn’t ask us to do something we couldn’t do. If He did, we could accuse Him of being unjust.

NO SICKNESS PERMITTED HERE!

God is not glorified in our body when we are sick. Satan is the author of sickness and disease. When Jesus was on the earth, He destroyed the works of the devil (1 John 3:8) and went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed of the devil (Acts 10:38).

We are the custodian of our body, and it’s up to us to enforce God’s healing Word. We do this by exercising our authority in Christ over any sickness or disease that tries to attach itself to our body.

God holds us responsible for our body. The Holy Spirit dwells in us and helps us oversee that body. When we make our body line up with the Word of God and accept the Holy Spirit’s help to do it, we will be victorious and glorify God in every area of our life.♥

on someone or hitting someone. The flesh will do whatever it wants to do if we don’t rule it. And one member we have to gain mastery over is our tongue. James 3:8 calls it an unruly member. The tongue can be the hardest member of our body to control.

LIVING PURE BEFORE GOD

Paul told the Corinthians to glorify God in their bodies. In his first letter to them, he instructed them not to join themselves to a harlot or, in other words, not to commit sexual sins. Paul talked more about this in Galatians chapter 5. In verse 19 he said, “Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness. . . .”

The first four works of the flesh listed in this verse have to do with sexual sins. While we understand adultery and fornication, some people may not know what uncleanness is. When the Bible speaks of “uncleanness,” it is talking about homosexuality and lesbianism.

Transformed by HIS LOVE

FOR SARAH VAN DREESE, 2006 RHEMA Bible Training Center graduate, there's no greater joy than helping others. She has traveled around the world—to places like Peru, Australia, Greece, Nepal, Indonesia, and Asia—sowing into the lives of people and helping them see themselves as God sees them. Looking at her beautiful smile and peaceful demeanor, you'd never know of the deep turmoil she once experienced or how the enemy tried to destroy her life.

Born again at a neighborhood vacation Bible school outreach at the age of 5, Sarah remembered praying to receive Jesus and skipping happily home. "It was a genuine encounter with the Lord," she recalled, "but there were a lot of things going on during that time of my life—abuse situations."

Abused repeatedly by babysitters, Sarah began to believe the lies of the enemy. "I believed the abuse was my fault and that I was a bad person," she said. "That abuse from the babysitters scarred places in my heart."

As she grew, the scars became more firmly embedded. In the 11th grade—depressed, suicidal, and suffering from eating disorders—Sarah had her first psychiatric hospital admission. Also around that time she began cutting* herself.

"When I started cutting," Sarah soberly remembered, "I believed I was such a bad person that I was marked for evil. I believed the abuse was my fault, and it was so ingrained in me that I thought, 'If nobody else is going to punish me, I need to punish myself.'"

For Sarah, cutting became an addiction that would last five and a half years. It was an addiction she turned to whenever emotions overwhelmed her. In and out of hospitals, misdiagnosed, and overly medicated, she even cut herself just to make sure she was still alive.

In 1996, Sarah stopped cutting and rededicated her life to the Lord. But years later, the physical scars remained. "When I first began cutting, I was careful about where I did it so it could remain hidden," Sarah explained. "As time went on, I just didn't care anymore and I would carve words and symbols onto myself."

Those scars became a reminder of a past Sarah wanted to forget. "I said to the Lord, 'Father, I don't understand why those scars are still there, but one thing I ask is that You use them to Your glory.'" Sarah consecrated her scars to the Lord, and at that moment, she heard that still, small voice on the inside say, "Look at your legs."

"When I did," Sarah added, "three of the words I had carved into them were completely gone—no hint of them at all! The three words the Lord healed were sin, shame, and death."

"Not only did He heal my physical body, but the words He removed were a proclamation of what He did for me—for all of us—on the Cross. He took away sin, He took away shame, and He took away all fear of death."

Sarah is no longer embarrassed about her remaining scars. Instead, she's using them as a platform to proclaim the Gospel wherever she goes. In one country, she had the opportunity to speak to a young orphan girl who had repeatedly tried to God had made in a person's life. And it gave her hope.

"It seems so simple," Sarah said. "But it's the love of God that transformed my life. I am able to trust Him, because I know He loves me. And it's because He first loved me that I am able to love Him and truly love and help other people. There's no better way to live than to live loved."♥

*Cutting is a type of self-injury—an unhealthy means to cope with emotional pain, intense anger, or frustration.

Matters of the Heart

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHY SOME THINGS YOU HAVE ASKED THE LORD FOR HAVE NOT COME TO PASS? MANY TIMES WE GET DISCOURAGED OR DISILLUSIONED WHEN IT SEEMS AS IF OUR PRAYERS AREN'T BEING ANSWERED.

LYNETTE HAGIN

I REMEMBER MY father-in-law saying, “If I’m not receiving from God, I don’t check up on His end because I know that His promises are true and He does not fail. I check up on my end as to why I’m not receiving.” If it seems as if you’re hitting a brick wall when you pray, I encourage you to check up on yourself and find out why! Here are some areas to look at.

» Beware of PRIDE

Do you remember how prideful the Pharisees were? They were always telling others how good they were and praying things like, “Thank You, Lord, that I’m not like this poor tax collector” (Luke 18:11). But the Word tells us that their prayers were in vain because they lifted themselves up. (See v. 14.) The most important thing we can do as Christians is to keep a humble spirit. James said, “Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. . . . Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up” (James 4:8, 10). Certainly God wants us to be confident about who we are in Christ. But we are to lift up the Lord, not ourselves. As these verses tell us, if we humble ourselves before God, He will lift us up! Besides, it’s not what we can do; it’s what He can do through us—through a willing vessel.

» Say WHAT?

Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

—JAMES 4:11 (NJKV)

CONSIDER: How do you react when someone makes a derogatory remark about another person? Do you join in? Do you stick up for the other person? Or do you ignore the remark?

» God's NO-NO'S

We can see in James 4:11 that our prayers are sometimes hindered because we judge our brothers and sisters in the Lord. One of the biggest problems we have when we begin to judge others is that we try to categorize sins. For example, on a scale of one to 10, we might say that sins in category one—perhaps jealousy or strife—are not so bad. We think it's OK for us to be jealous of our brethren. But sins in category 10—such as adultery or lust—are “big.” Those are the sins we believe we can't be forgiven for.

According to our categories, it's OK for us to stir up strife because that sin is only at category one on our scale. But it's really not OK, is it? What does the Word say about strife?

PROVERBS 6:16-19

16 These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A false witness that speaketh lies, AND HE THAT SOWETH DISCORD AMONG BRETHREN.

That's talking about strife, isn't it? And here it is in a list of seven things the Lord hates—a list of His “no-no's.” So often we ignore strife and discord as if it's OK. Yet, churches have been totally destroyed because of discord that's been sown among the brethren.

Sin cannot be categorized from one to ten. Sin is sin, regardless of what it is. But I'm so thankful that our Heavenly Father has made provision for us if we do sin. First John 1:9 says, “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” And Jeremiah 31:34 tells us that God will not remember our sins!

» Show Me Some MERCY!

When we look at Jesus' ministry, we won't find condemnation or a judgmental attitude. He always lifted people up. He always forgave people. And He admonished us to forgive. The Word says, “Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy” (Matt. 5:7). God had mercy on us, didn't He? Adam and Eve messed up royally. They doomed us all. What if God had said, “Why should I save mankind? Why should I give them a second chance? They got what they deserved?” He could have said that. But what did He do? He loved us so much that He gave the very best Gift He had—His precious Son, the Lord Jesus Christ—to redeem us. God has been merciful to us, so it's important for us to be merciful to others and not judge each other. It's important for us to learn how to forgive. ♥

Is your attention focused on the things of the Spirit?

» Walk in the Spirit!

One of the assignments that God has placed on my husband's heart and on mine is to help believers stay balanced, according to the Word of God. We realize that we must not ignore the realities of life—the adversities that we all face at times. But as Christians, we also know that we can find the answers to those adversities in God's Word.

In this issue of The Word of Faith, we have addressed the fact that we all have a carnal nature and we all experience the temptation to sin. But thank God, His Word tells us how to overcome these challenges. One of the most important things we can do to help us deal with our carnal impulses is to walk in the Spirit. Galatians 5:16 says that if we walk in the Spirit, we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

What does it mean to walk in the Spirit? Romans 8:5 tells us, “For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit” (NKJV).

This verse is talking about where we focus our thoughts. Are we focused on the things of the flesh—the things of this world and of our carnal impulses? Or is our attention focused on the things of the Spirit—God's Word, prayer, church attendance, and worshipping the Lord? The more we focus on the things of the Spirit, the easier it will be to resist temptation and live a victorious, overcoming life!

What Ever Happened to Morals?

KENNETH W. HAGIN

THERE'S NO QUESTION about it. Morals in the United States are declining. It's easy to get swept away with this tide because our society places little value on godly and moral character anymore. Sexuality is promoted on television and the Internet and in movies, books, magazines, and other communications media. Many young people have never been taught anything about character. And immorality is at a record high.

We are seeing a lack of character in every segment of society. Many people—including some Christians—do not think that godly character is an issue anymore. I remember a time when written contracts weren't necessary. People were known by their character, and their word was their bond. But those days are long gone.

GOD'S VALUES

As Christians, we should place a higher value on character than anybody else. Immorality should never be a part of our lives. Many unsaved people will never pick up a Bible and read it. But by our words and actions, we become the Bible they read.

This may be a little strong, but it's time we stand up and call wrong, wrong and right, right. Nowadays we don't hear a lot of preaching against sin and for right living. But we who call ourselves Christians and who have been washed in the blood of the Lamb have a responsibility to the people outside the walls of our churches to demonstrate godly, moral character.

The Word of God puts a high emphasis on Christian values and moral character. Proverbs 11:3 says, "The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity" (NIV 1984).

HOW OFTEN DO WE CHANGE?

Duplicity is when a person openly acts one way and secretly acts another way with the intention of deceiving. Sometimes we call a person like this a chameleon. Like the small lizard that changes color depending on what it is crawling on, this person changes his actions and words depending on who he is with.

The Bible is filled with stories of people who refused to act in duplicity. They would not compromise their beliefs no matter what it cost them.

After being sold into slavery, Joseph would not compromise his integrity when his master's wife tried to seduce him. Although Joseph spurned her advances, he found himself in prison charged with sexual assault. It looked like he was going under. But God was with him and it wasn't long before Joseph was elevated to being second-in-command in Egypt. (See Genesis 39–41.)

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego also had a tough choice to make. They were ordered to worship a golden image or be thrown into a fiery furnace. They refused to bow down before the image. Instead, they stood up for what they believed, in spite of the seemingly dire consequences. And when we stand up for godly character, God won't let us down.

OUR EXAMPLE TO FOLLOW

We often focus on the miracles Jesus performed during His life, and on His death on the Cross. But if we look at His life, we'll find all the characteristics of

When we stand up for godly character, God won't let us down.

As Christians, we should place a higher value on character than anybody else.

These three young Hebrew men were delivered from their fiery fate and were promoted in the process. (See Daniel chapter 3.)

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH, WHAT DO WE DO?

Someone once said, "Character is not made in a crisis; it's only exhibited." Godly character is present and should be developed before the crisis strikes. And what's already in our hearts is what will come out under pressure. We see in Galatians chapter 5 the godly characteristics we want firmly planted inside us.

godliness listed in these scriptures. Jesus showed us how we should live and act. He lived a godly life and set the example for us to follow.

The destinies of our families and the people around us depend on our character. Our lives—our words and actions—will either draw others to the Lord or push them away from Him. So let's rise up and follow Christ's example. Let's exhibit the godly character and values He showed us.♥

What IS Sin?

WHAT IS SIN? The original language of the Bible defines sin as “to miss the mark.” The “mark” is the standard that God established and Jesus lived out. Although the full answer to the question “What is sin?” varies, the Bible makes it clear that everyone has sinned. Romans 3:23 says, “All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” (NIV 2011).

Sin is mentioned hundreds of times in the Bible, beginning with the “original” sin when Adam and Eve ate of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. Often it seems as if sin is simply the violation of any of God’s laws, including the Ten Commandments.

The Apostle Paul put this in perspective in Romans 3:20 when he said, “No one will be declared righteous in God’s sight by the works of the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of our sin” (NIV 2011).

When we sin God wants us to recognize our sins. Even those of us who have not murdered or committed adultery may find ourselves convicted of lying or of worshipping false idols like wealth or power ahead of God.

Tragically, sin in any amount will distance us from God. Isaiah 59:2 (NIV 2011) says, “Your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear.”

The good news is that Jesus made a way for us to come back to God. His death on the cross paid the penalty for our sins. We cannot stand before God in our own righteousness—our “good deeds.” We cannot work our way to Heaven and into God’s presence. We must accept what Christ did for us.

PRAYER OF SALVATION

If you have never made Jesus the Lord and Savior of your life, it’s not too late! Simply pray this prayer from your heart:

DEAR GOD,

I recognize that I am a sinner and am lost without You. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, died on the Cross for my sins. I turn away from sin and invite You into my life. I confess that Jesus is my Lord and Savior. I believe with all my heart that You have forgiven me for every sin and that You have saved me. Thank You!

If you prayed this prayer, welcome to God’s family! We have some materials we would like to give you to help you get started in your walk with God. E-mail us at PartnerService@rhema.org or call us at 1-800-54-FAITH (543-2484).

SALVATION IS A GIFT.

Romans 6:23 says, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ.” And Ephesians 2:8–9 says, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

TO RECEIVE THIS GIFT YOU MUST:

RECOGNIZE that you are a sinner, lost, without God, and without hope (Rom. 3:23).

ADMIT that Jesus shed His blood and died on the Cross to save you from sin.

COME TO GOD, turning away from sin and confessing Jesus as your Lord.

BELIEVE from your heart and confess with your mouth that God forgives you of your sins and that He has saved you.♥

It's Not Too Late

[Editor's Note: Rev. Bill Ray has been an instructor at RHEMA Bible Training Center USA for 12 years and an associate minister at RHEMA Bible Church for 10 years.]

Q. What would you say to a Christian who is stuck in a sin and they want to get out of it?

A. I think it is important what a person knows about the Word of God. Jesus said we would know the truth and the truth would set us free. It's the truth we know and act on that sets us free. So we have to know the truth about sin, its origin, consequences, and power if we are going to live in freedom.

The Bible says we've all sinned and come short of the glory of God. Sin is simply missing God's mark. The standard of His holiness is higher than we could attain, so all of us have missed the mark. I would remind people that even though we've all sinned, God has provided an awesome escape and plan of victory for every one of us. If we will listen to God and follow Him, we will find that freedom.

Romans 6:6 says, "We should no longer be slaves of sin" (NKJV). God would be unfair to write that if we couldn't actually have mastery over sin. I believe people sometimes think they are a slave to sin, but the Bible says we have control over sin. If we feed our flesh, sin will have mastery over us. But if we feed our spirit, we will have mastery over sin.

We have to watch our thoughts, because our thoughts turn into actions. Walking in freedom from sin means we need to be aware of what we are thinking about, looking at, listening to, and saying. When we control our mind, our thoughts will be renewed and we'll have the freedom over sin we've been looking for.

Q. What practical steps would you give to help a believer struggling with sin?

A. I don't think there is anything more effective than meditating in Scripture. If there is an area that we are dealing with, we need to find scriptures that promise us God's freedom, grace, and victory and meditate on them. I also think having an accountability partner is very, very important. The enemy loves it when we don't expose ourselves to accountability. When we're accountable, it's a constant reminder. We know someone is going to ask us how we're doing in certain areas. When the enemy can't keep us in the shadows, he can't keep us bound.

Q. What would you say to a Christian dealing with the condemnation of a sin he or she has committed?

A. We need to first ask God to forgive us of our sin (1 John 1:9), and then understand that Christ has justified us. The Bible says that God has thrown our sins into the deepest ocean and separated our sin from us as far as the east is from the west. You can't measure that! When God sees us, He sees us through the blood of Jesus, and that blood causes Him to see us completely spotless and without sin.

It's the truth we know and act on that sets us free.

A person who stays in guilt and condemnation is really saying to God, "I know better than You. I know better than Your Word. You said I was forgiven, but I know better. I'm not really forgiven." The Bible says, "There is therefore now NO CONDEMNATION to those who are in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 8:1 NKJV). We should behave like there is no condemnation. And if God has forgiven us, we need to forgive ourselves.♥

PRAYER OF RESTORATION

Are you a believer who has been struggling in sin or under condemnation for a sin you've committed? If you have and you want to be free, pray the following prayer:

DEAR GOD,

I come to You asking for Your forgiveness. Your Word says, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9 NKJV). I confess my sins to You now. And based on Your Word, I accept Your forgiveness and Your cleansing.

Thank You! I also choose to forgive myself. As You help me, I will walk in the light of Your Word.

In Jesus' Name I pray, Amen.

If you prayed this prayer, we have some materials we would like to send you to help you in your walk with God. E-mail us at PartnerService@rhema.org or call us at 1-800-54-FAITH (543-2484).

Never the Same

It was a bad situation. The hospital room was dark and dirty, the atmosphere was dismal, and the man lying in the bed surrounded by tubes and grieving relatives was dying of tuberculosis. For David and Violeta Larsson, 1991 RHEMA Bible Training Center graduates and new missionaries to Bolivia, there was just one thing they could do—act on the Word.

OPENING THEIR BIBLES to Mark 16:18, they read aloud so everyone in the room could hear: “Believers will lay hands on the sick and they will recover.” Looking at the man in the bed, they said, “We’re going to do what the Bible says. We’re going to lay hands on you and you’re going to recover.”

David and Violeta laid their hands on the man, and though he looked no better, they instructed him to begin thanking God that he was healed. “He took what we told him to heart,” David said. “He started thanking God right then.”

From that moment, the atmosphere in the room began to change. A few days later the man was out of bed, out of the hospital, and completely healed. Four years later he was still healed and said he had never coughed again.

A SWEDISH BEGINNING

David and Violeta’s journey to Bolivia began more than 7,000 miles away in Sweden. As a young child, Violeta had moved there from Bolivia with her family. It was in Sweden that she fell in love with Jesus and with her husband. After marrying, David and Violeta both had a strong hunger for the Word of God. Driven by a desire to hear more about Who God was, they attended a Bible school in Sweden. After studying under one of the teachers—a RHEMA graduate—they decided to attend RHEMA USA themselves.

During the two years the Larssons were at RHEMA, God began to give them glimpses of their future. “I knew God had called us to missions,” Violeta recalled, “but I wasn’t even thinking about going back to Bolivia.” As the couple participated in a prayer group, though, God laid that very country on their hearts.

“The Holy Spirit directed us to pray more and more for South America—more specifically, for Bolivia,” noted David. “It was between my first and second year that it became clear what God had for us in Bolivia.”

The Larssons returned to Sweden and spent five years helping in two Bible schools. Then, in August of 1996, David and Violeta determined that the time was finally right. With their two children in tow, they packed up and moved to Cochabamba, Bolivia.

RHEMA BOLIVIA

Nestled more than 8,000 feet above sea level in the shadow of the towering Andes Mountains, Cochabamba is located in the heart of Bolivia. Here David and Violeta started a church in their living room in January of 1997. “The first one to get saved was a taxi driver,” David recalled. “He received Jesus, then brought some friends with him. They were saved and filled with the Holy Spirit and became our starting group.”

Today, the church—Iglesia la Palabra de Fe (Word of Faith Church)—has grown to more than 250 members, and they have planted four other churches throughout the region. Pastored by nationals David and Violeta have trained, these churches are thriving with from 50 to 100 members each.

In 1999, led by a desire to train leaders for the Body of Christ, the Larssons founded a Bible school in Cochabamba—La Palabra de Fe. In 2010, the school officially came under the RHEMA umbrella and RHEMA Bolivia was born. Since its inception, the school David and Violeta founded has seen more than 300 graduates pass through its doors. Even the pastor of the largest church in Cochabamba came to the school desiring to be trained. “This pastor told me he had about 1,500 people come on Sunday but didn’t know what to tell them,” David explained. “He went through our Bible school, and then his wife, daughter, and 15 other people from his church also came.”

RHEMA Bolivia, like its U.S. counterpart, is a two-year

program with an optional third year. In order to accommodate the busy schedules of working students, the school offers morning and evening sessions with three lessons each. Sessions are taught three days a week. Third-year students receive specific teaching in their specialties, but they also participate in evangelism and other church outreaches.

In April of 2011, RHEMA Bolivia received the go-ahead to open another campus in La Paz—Bolivia’s administrative capital and one of its largest cities. With so much happening, David and Violeta—and their team of teachers—are staying busy. But they couldn’t be happier. “The greatest thing for us,” said David, “is to see people change in the two or three years they’re with us. When some come in, they are very shy. They won’t look at you, because they are a people who have been oppressed. After learning God’s Word, they come out so different—so confident. To hear them preach is really an amazing thing.”

One of David and Violeta’s current students, a first-year graduate, saw changes not only in her thinking but also in her body. Because of problems with her knee, she spent most of her time in bed. But then she decided she wanted to come to Bible school. She came in a wheelchair, and as she sat in class, she heard about faith and healing. “The student next to her in classes basically started bugging her,” David laughed. “He started saying, ‘Are you listening? Don’t you think it’s time to come here without your wheelchair?’”

Prompted by what her classmate was saying and by what she was learning in class, this woman left her wheelchair behind and began coming with a walker. Concerned, her children warned her that she was going to hurt herself. “But she told them, ‘I’m learning some things in Bible school,’” David said, “and she kept coming.”

“It took some time,” Violeta interjected, “but she left her walker behind and started to come with a cane. She was hearing more about the Word of God and receiving more of her healing because faith was increasing in her. One day she came without anything. She came walking!”

LOOKING AHEAD

With 35 of their graduates pastoring churches and numerous others serving in the ministry of helps, David and Violeta are in awe of what God has accomplished through them in Bolivia. But they know there is much more to be done. “When God sent us to Bolivia, He told us to give His Word to the people,” David affirmed. The first step was to touch the city of Cochabamba, the second step is to cover the country, and the final step is to extend beyond the country.”

David and Violeta are well on their way to fulfilling the vision, and they are grateful to be a part of what RHEMA is doing around the world.

“We see it as an honor to be able to work in the ministry—to give the same training we received at RHEMA to people in Bolivia,” David said. “What we learned at RHEMA changed our lives completely. It gave us purpose and taught us so many things.”

“We have been blessed,” Violeta added. “RHEMA changed our life. In Spanish we say, ‘Jamás serás el mismo.’ That means you are never the same once you attend RHEMA. You come in as one person and finish as another, because God is changing you every day through His Word and the Holy Spirit. It’s just fun to see what God can do!”

RBTC

Sends Out 37th Graduating Class

AS THE CEREMONIAL notes of “Pomp and Circumstance” signaled the start of RHEMA Bible Training Center USA’s 37th commencement, 407 soon-to-be graduates filed into the Tulsa Convention Center while family and friends cheered, waved, and took pictures. Counting the Class of 2011, RBTC now has more than 45,000 graduates around the world!

Sam Smucker, pastor of Worship Center in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and a 1977 RHEMA Bible Training Center graduate, delivered the commencement address. He shared five practical points to help the eager graduates succeed in ministry.

KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE FENCE POST. “Jesus said, ‘No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God’ (Luke 9:62 NIV 2011). When my dad was teaching me how to plow a field, he taught me to keep my eyes on a fence post and never look down. When I’d get to the other end of the field after doing that, I’d look back and my furrow was straight. Graduates, keep your eyes on your vision. The Bible says, ‘Where there is no vision, the people perish’ (Prov. 29:18).”

SWIM IN YOUR OWN LANE. “Be yourself. You can’t be anyone else. We all have an assignment from God. Psalm 139:16 (NLT) says, ‘You saw me before I was born. Every day of my life was recorded in your book. Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed.’ Be authentic. Your gift will shine and make room for you.”

LIVE AND MINISTER CALEB’S WAY. “In Numbers chapter 13, Moses sent the spies to Canaan. They saw how good the land was. Ten said they couldn’t take the land, but Caleb and Joshua said, ‘Let’s go get it!’ They saw things different than the crowd. A positive approach to life in a negative world puts us above the circumstances of life.”

BE AND REMAIN TEACHABLE. “I see too many people who don’t ask any questions. I see people struggling in ministry who won’t ask questions. Don’t have a know-it-all attitude.”

TREASURE WHAT MATTERS MOST. “Love people. Jesus is our example of loving people. He constantly drove home to His disciples that it’s about loving people, restoring people, serving people, and empowering people. And Jesus demonstrated this in His life every day.”

At the conclusion of the ceremony, each graduate walked from the hall holding a lit candle in one hand and in the other a runner’s relay baton. Each baton bore these words: “I commit today to carry the baton of revival to this generation. I will carry the banner of faith and God’s power to a lost and dying world. This is my time to do all God has called me to do!”

In their first year of play, the RHEMA Eagles soccer team reached the finals of the ACCA National Championship before falling to Hillsdale 3-1 in the championship game. RHEMA will continue to field a men’s soccer team and plans to start a women’s team for the 2011–2012 school year.

BIBLICAL STUDIES SECOND- AND THIRD-YEAR PROGRAM OFFERED

In recent years, RBTC instructors have observed that many believers today lack basic Bible knowledge. To remedy that, RHEMA Bible Training Center launched the RHEMA School of Biblical Studies during the 2010–2011 school year. This exciting program includes 24 courses on books of the Bible not currently covered in depth in RBTC classes. This course of study is open to anyone who has completed one year at RBTC and all second-year graduates.

Thoughts

// LYNETTE HAGIN

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV 1984)

I AM SO GRATEFUL for the values my parents taught me as a young child, by both precept and example. God was always placed first in our life and home. Time after time they quoted to me Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." I learned that verse in the King James Version. However, I like it in the New Living Translation: "Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need."

Live righteously—we don't hear those words quoted too often these days. But they are words we need to be reminded of frequently. In church and at home, I was also taught Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." I like this verse in the New Century Version (1991): "When people sin, they earn what sin pays—death. But God gives us a free gift—life forever in Christ Jesus our Lord."

There is a saying, "Sin will take you further than you want to go, keep you longer than you want to stay, and cost you more than you want to pay." Sin has consequences. But I'm so grateful for a loving and merciful God Who has made provision for us in First John 1:9: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

When we ask for forgiveness, God forgives and forgets our mistakes, and we should too. We do not have to live under condemnation for past mistakes. However, we should strive to live a godly and consecrated life for Him. Romans 12:1–2 (NLT) says, "And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him. Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect."

We should submit to God, commit our lives to Him, and allow Him to transform us by giving us a new way of thinking. In order to hear His instructions, we must live close to Him. How do we do that? By setting aside time every day to read the Bible and communicate with the Father in prayer. We must let His Word speak to our hearts.

I encourage you to read Galatians chapter 5 often. It will help you identify how to walk in the Spirit so you will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. And of course we should read First Corinthians 13, the love chapter, each day. Exercising the love walk will help us know how to respond in adverse situations. Many years ago I was having trouble forgiving those who had wronged me. I had to read Mark 11:25 every day: "But when you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too" (NLT).

Another scripture I read daily was Matthew 5:44, "But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you." When you pray for your enemies each day, after a while love begins to govern your thoughts and actions.

Wherever you are struggling to keep the flesh under—find scripture that applies to your case. Read it daily or many times a day until you have conquered in that area of your life. I encourage you not to override your conscience (the guide that God has placed inside each of us). When you continually override that, your heart becomes hardened and you lose your ability to hear God's voice. He warns us in Hebrews 3:8 (NLT), "Don't harden your hearts as Israel did when they rebelled, when they tested me in the wilderness."

And Hebrews 3:12–14 (NLT) admonishes us, "Be careful then, dear brothers and sisters. Make sure that your own hearts are not evil and unbelieving, turning you away from the living God. You must warn each other every day, while it is still 'today,' so that none of you will be deceived by sin and hardened against God. For if we are faithful to the end, trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed, we will share in all that belongs to Christ."♥

Are You "Plugged In?"

Do you have POWER in your Christian life? If not, it may be that you're not "plugged in" to the Power Source. Read the verses below to discover God's Power Source.

Luke 1:35 (NASB)—"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you."
Acts 1:8 (NKJV)—"You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you."
Acts 10:38 (NASB)—"God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power."
Romans 15:13 (NKJV)—"... you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."
1 Thessalonians 1:5 (NKJV)—"For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit."

Finish the Puzzle!

In John 16:13, Jesus told us a very important job that the Holy Spirit does. See if you can finish the puzzle below by filling in the blanks with the missing letters.

Well, did you figure it out? The Christian's source of POWER is the HOLY SPIRIT! Even Jesus himself didn't do any POWERFUL miracles until He had received the HOLY SPIRIT. After the Holy Spirit descended on Jesus at His baptism, Luke 4:14 tells us that Jesus "returned in the POWER of the SPIRIT to Galilee." So if you want POWER in your life, receive the "gift of the HOLY SPIRIT" (Acts 2:38)!
