How Strong Is Your Desire?

How badly do you want to live the extraordinary life God has for you? Often the difference between people who excel in life and those who don't isn't in their ability. The difference is in their level of desire.

When you have a strong desire for something, you will reach down inside yourself and give out more effort than you ever thought you could. Just look at the men and women who are participating in the summer Olympics right now! Their desire has pushed them beyond what they ever thought they could do.

When I played sports, there were a lot of people who might have been better players than I was, but I had a deep-down desire to play. I would do whatever it took to get on that playing field. I didn't just want to be on the team. I wanted to make a difference.

Sadly, there are a lot of people who, in their spiritual and natural lives, are there just to be on the team. But if the desire of your heart is to live on the extraordinary level God has for you, Psalm 37:4 shows you how to achieve that. It says, "Delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart" (NIV). How do you delight yourself in the Lord? By seeking Him. You must read His Word, pray, and learn to think His thoughts. This will give you the push you need to begin to see things happen.

Do you want to be successful? Do you want it badly enough to do whatever it takes to make it happen? If the answer is "yes," begin to develop your natural abilities and talents. Grab hold of the opportunities God gives you. And above all, continually delight yourself in the Lord and worship Him. As you do, the desires of your heart will come to pass!

QUIT

RUNNING SCARED!

KENNETH W. HAGIN

It's Time to Get Bold With the Devil

TO WALK in the power of God and bring supernatural deliverance in people's lives, we have to get bold with the devil. I say this because too many believers act as though they are afraid of Satan and demonic power. It doesn't have to be this way when we know who we are in Christ and operate in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Some teach that when the first apostles died, so did the power of God. They say that today people get saved, deal with the devil as best they can, and go to Heaven when they die. That should not be so! We are part of the same Church the early fathers were a part of. And the Word of God says that the glory of the latter house will be more than that of the former house (Hag. 2:9). That means we must be bold with the devil.

I believe we are in the beginning of the greatest revival the world has ever known, because this revival will be the last revival. As we read the world news, it is like reading Jesus' words in Matthew chapter 24 or Daniel's vision in Daniel chapter 7.

Everything the Bible prophesied is falling into place. Countries and kingdoms are taking their places. People are being put in position for the last days, and the devil knows his time is running out.

Walk in Jesus' Victory

Unfortunately, a lot of Christians are running scared. Some have never understood the power they have over Satan through the blood of Jesus Christ. Others have forgotten that they have that power. If we understand the power of the blood, when things get tough, we get tougher!

Jesus was in the grave for three days. During that time He met the enemy face-to-face and stripped him of all authority and power (Col. 2:15). Then He rose from the dead with the keys of death and hell in His grip (Rev. 1:18).

Jesus triumphed over Satan and all demonic powers by the cross. He became sin so you and I could walk in His victory. The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead dwells in us (Rom. 8:11). We carry His resurrection power, and God put it in us for a purpose. We are to do the works Jesus did, bring Heaven to earth, and crush the enemy whenever he shows his ugly head.

Peter and Paul spoke of the works Jesus did while He was on the earth. In Acts 10:38 (NIV), Peter said that Jesus "went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil." Christians should be doing those same works now.

We need to be bold with the devil. And we can get bold when we walk in the power of the blood of the Lamb.

#RhemaWOF

Jesus announced His ministry by saying that God had anointed Him to heal everyone who was under the devil's power and to set the captives free (Luke 4:18-19). We need to realize that God has anointed us too! We are anointed, not because of anything we have done, but because of what Jesus did on the cross.

Because of the cross, what Jesus did in His earthly ministry has become a pattern for how we should live each day. We are to preach the Gospel, heal the sick, and bring deliverance to the captives. That means we need to be bold with the devil. And we can get bold when we walk in the power of the blood of the Lamb.

First John 2:20 (NIV) says that we have an anointing from the Holy One and know the truth. We know about the power of the blood. We know the Holy Spirit Who lives in us and has anointed us to win every wrestling match we have with the enemy. The preacher and the healing evangelist aren't the only ones anointed by God. All Christians are anointed by God.

Our Commission Trumps Satan's Agenda

We must remember that what happens in the spirit realm determines what happens in the natural realm. And the devil and his demons are no match for the Holy Spirit and the hosts of Heaven. The power and authority Jesus gave us trumps any agenda the enemy might use against us.

Nevertheless, Satan and his demonic cohorts are doing everything they can to stop us from fulfilling the Great Commission. They will do anything they can to keep us from doing the will of God. They usually do this through other people, sometimes even believers.

FAITH IN ACTION

Where to Keep Your Focus

No matter what adverse circumstances show up, we can experience the victory God intends for us. We can praise Him and thank Him for delivering us out of every trial. But to walk in our God-given triumph, we should keep three "don'ts" in mind.

- 1 DON'T PANIC.
Instead, praise God. View troubles and problems from Jesus' perspective. He has already overcome the world—and He did it for us!
- 2 DON'T BE PROBLEM-CONSCIOUS.
No one is exempt from problems, but you don't have to dwell on them. Thank God for what you have. Don't focus on what you don't have.
- 3 DON'T BE A PESSIMIST.
Pessimism is doubt in action. Focus on the goodness and power of God. Thank Him that He will do for you what He said in His Word. That will change your outlook.

Our fight is not with the people who cause us grief. Our fight is a spiritual battle. We wrestle with demonic principalities and powers that are influencing people to try to prevent us from doing God's will. A wrestling match is going on in the spirit realm between the power of God and the forces of evil. And we are right in the middle of it.

The good news is that God has placed us in a position to change things. We are seated with Jesus at God's right hand. We have His ear and His perspective. According to Matthew 18:18, we can pray and bind the devil from operating through the people in our world.

We don't need to be afraid of the devil, because Jesus already took care of him. All we need to do is use the authority He gave us through His blood over all the power of the enemy.

When we do that, watch out! The explosive power of God will move through us just as it has through countless saints throughout church history. And the devil and his demons will shake in terror at the sight of us!♥

Sharing Christ With Family Members

BRIAN MCCALLUM

Have you had success sharing Christ with a family member? Tell us about it on Facebook and #RhemaWOF. Or email us at partnerservice@rhema.org.

PRAYING FOR unsaved family members is always an action believers should take. However, both the Word and experience tell us that prayer should not be the only action taken.

To begin looking into other ways of witnessing to unsaved or backslidden loved ones, let's consider what Paul wrote to the Corinthian church: "Love is patient, love is kind. . . . it does not seek its own, . . . does not take into account a wrong suffered, . . . believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor. 13:4-5, 7-8 NASB).

Unconditional Love

Love is inclusive, not exclusive. NEVER LET LOST LOVED ONES BELIEVE THAT YOU THINK LESS OF THEM OR WANT TO AVOID THEM. When they need material help, be the first one there with the most to offer.

Take any opportunity to share wise counsel, but in doing so, don't put them down. Be like Jesus in dealing with the Laodicean church.

Give a Courtesy Knock

Revelation 3:20 (NASB) says, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me."

What is a "knock"? It's not forced entry or kicking the door open! Here is an example of knocking on the door of someone's heart.

You might ask the person, "Have you learned anything from this experience?" If the answer is, "No, and I don't care to," recognize that you don't have an open door. You can offer any act of mercy they will allow, but don't attempt any further instruction at this point.

Remember, Jesus said, "If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in." The person you are dealing with must open the door to you.

What is an open door? If their reply to the above question was, "I'm not sure but I'd like to know." They're open to what you have to say. You can now minister as you are led by the Holy Spirit.

In both cases, the practical application of love and care was shown before and after the "knock." If the person didn't open the door at first, knock again before too much time passes. YOUR CONTINUING SHOW OF CONCERN MAY HAVE SOFTENED THEIR HEART.

FAITH IN ACTION

Soul-Winning Confessions for Your Family

"I am patient with and kind toward my family. I show them acts of kindness when opportunities arise."

"I am more interested in their welfare than my own. So I invest my time and substance when compassion leads me to do so."

"I don't take offense from their wrong words or actions."

"I don't allow myself to magnify wrongs. Instead, I magnify what the Word has promised."

"My hope stays strong in Christ when evil or negative reports come."

"I endure and overcome when I am tempted to judge or think less of my loved ones because of their wrongdoings."

Be a Living Epistle

Second Corinthians 3:2 says, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men." This scripture conveys that A SILENT WITNESS IS ALSO AN ABLE MINISTER OF CHRIST.

Our actions speak volumes. They are just as powerful as the words we speak.

You can see then why you shouldn't hide from unbelieving relatives. How are they going to read the epistle that you are if they don't see or hear from you? Your love and care expressed in action, and your friendship and help in their times of trouble, will speak volumes to their hearts. ♥

CRAIG W. HAGIN

IT REALLY MATTERS how we use our faith. It also matters who we're placing our faith in. Sometimes we're not putting our faith in the right person. Therefore, we're not seeing answers to our prayers. But that doesn't have to be the case. God wants to move the mountains in our lives.

Anyone associated with Kenneth Hagin Ministries is familiar with Mark 11:22–24. These verses have been the keynote scriptures for this ministry since its beginning. We can speak to our mountains and they have to move.

But sometimes I think we're missing something important in these verses. I want to examine them from a different angle so we can identify whom we're placing our faith in and see mountains move in our lives.

MARK 11:22–24 (NKJV)

22 So Jesus answered and said to them, "Have faith in God."

23 For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says.

24 Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.

In verse 22 Jesus told His disciples, "Have faith in God." Notice that Jesus didn't say, "Have faith in Me." Sometimes we're placing our faith in our pastor, another minister, or ourselves. But Jesus wants us to place our trust in God, because God is always able and willing to do something.

Proverbs 3:5 says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding" (NKJV). We can trust God to make good on His Word. He promises to never fail us or leave us (Heb. 13:5). Wherever we are, we can call upon His name. We can trust Him.

Regardless of how big or small the battle is, God is able to deliver us. The same God Who heals us from the flu also heals cancer.

#RhemaWOF

It Works!

Jesus said in Mark 11:23, "For assuredly . . ." The word assuredly means "undoubting" or "confidently." In other words, Jesus was saying to His disciples, "I know it works!" And we can be confident too that when we put God's Word into practice, it will work for us.

The disciples saw God's Word work through Jesus. They saw Him speak to a fig tree, and the fig tree died. The next day, when the disciples saw that the fig tree had withered away, they asked Jesus what He did.

Jesus said, "I just did what you can do. I spoke to it and commanded it to dry up." The fig tree changed as a result of Jesus' words. Jesus had faith in God, and He spoke confidently to that tree. The disciples didn't see anything different right away. But things began to change, and they saw the results the next morning. We can trust God that whenever we speak in line with His Word, and we believe that what we say will happen, mountains will move.

Open Your Mouth

Jesus told His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain . . ." Many people have said, "Well, this was only for the disciples." No, it's for whoever. You see, we're whoevers. Because God is backing us, we can speak boldly to our mountain and it will move. But we're the ones who have to speak. We can't expect somebody else to do our speaking for us.

In Mark 11:23 Jesus was speaking of a literal mountain. But in our lives we run into all kinds of mountains, or problems. Our mountains can be physical, financial, emotional, or any other kind of problem. But if we will trust God, we can be confident that when we speak to our mountains in faith, those mountains will move. Jesus was saying that we don't have to just barely get through our mountains. We can obliterate them through our words.

Through Jesus Christ, God has given us all authority and power to speak to our problems and see them change. When Jesus died on the cross, He gave us the authority to speak in His Name. At that Name, demons tremble and flee. We can use that authority when we speak.

God Will Move

Begin to speak things that you want in your life, not things that you already have. Decide what kind of life you want to live and speak those things into existence. When we speak to our mountains, we're telling God, "This is what I need You to take care of." And He will take care of it for us, no matter how big it looks.

FAITH NUGGET

Don't Give Up!

According to Webster's New World Dictionary, faith is "unquestioning belief." Anytime we have spoken to our mountain and the answer hasn't come right away, we may be tempted to doubt. But we must keep believing.

We have to understand that God is not a drive-through window. He is not a microwave. We often think we're going to get our needs met immediately. And sometimes that does happen. But other times we have to have patience. If our mountain doesn't move instantly, we have to keep standing. God's Word works. He will never fail us.

To stay strong in faith, once you've prayed, say every day, "Thank You, Father, that this mountain is gone." It doesn't matter if you continue to get bills or bad reports. We're not looking at the report of man—we're looking at the report of God. Our faith is in Him. He told us to say it with our mouths and believe it in our hearts and we will have what we say. And He is faithful to perform His Word.

Often we look at something that seems big to us, and we think it's impossible to overcome. But Luke 18:27 says, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God" (NKJV). So, only believe. It's really simple. We only have to believe that God is able, and that He will do it.

We don't have to place our faith in anyone else. We can rest in God. It's not by our power or might that we see mountains move. It's by God's power and might. It's not about how much faith we have. Jesus said, "Have faith in God." We can be confident that when we speak, our mountains will be wiped out, because our faith is in the One Who never fails. ♥

RHEMA USA GRADUATES 42ND CLASS

CHEERS AND APPLAUSE from family and friends greeted Rhema Bible Training College's 42nd class as the 297 graduates filed into the Cox Business Center auditorium in Tulsa. Their caps and gowns showed clearly that they had successfully completed their training and were equipped and eager to enter the harvest fields of the earth.

Rev. Dean Hawk, pastor of Rock Family Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and a 1981 Rhema Bible Training College graduate, delivered the commencement address. Rev. Hawk encouraged and challenged the graduates to do the work God has called them to do.

I want to share five tips that I've learned from being in ministry that can help you successfully run the race set before you.

Tip One

BREAK THE POWER OF SIN NOW BEFORE IT BREAKS YOU. Hebrews 12:1 (NIV) tells us, "Let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."

Take off those things that entangle and inhibit. When a runner runs, he doesn't put on boots and Levi's and a flannel shirt. No, he strips down to the very essentials and minimum so that there won't be anything that can hinder his race. What do you need to tweak to become the man or woman of God that He wants you to be?

Tip Two

RUN A MARATHON, NOT A SPRINT. You see, it's not how you start the race—it's how you finish. When I think about the number of people that I sat shoulder to shoulder with 35 years ago at my graduation, and how many are still serving Jesus and still active in ministry . . . there are casualties along that row. I want to run the full race. When I cross the finish line, I want to hear, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant!" Are you going to finish your race in the will of God?

Tip Three

PUT INTO PRACTICE WHAT YOU'VE HEARD AND SEEN. In James chapter 1 we're told not to be merely listeners to the Word but to be doers of the Word. When you begin to act on the Word, you'll see God do some good things in your life. The Lord has entrusted you to fulfill His mission of sharing the Gospel. He has entrusted you to be His hands and His feet. Don't wait on Him. Do what you've seen and heard.

Tip Four

SUCCESS IS ABSOLUTE OBEDIENCE TO GOD'S WILL FOR YOUR LIFE. It's not comparing yourself to what somebody else is doing. It's not looking at how large your church or ministry is, or what you're doing for God compared to other people. It's what are you doing with what God told you to do? If you are obeying God, you are the most successful servant in His Kingdom, because you're walking smack down the middle of His perfect will for you.

Tip Five

RUN YOUR RACE, STAY IN YOUR LANE, AND STICK WITH YOUR GIFT. You'll be tempted to take shortcuts in ministry—to go into gray zones when you should stay in the black or the white zone. Live and walk in integrity. And let your gift make room for you. Stop looking for a position, and search, and follow your passion.

As the ceremony ended, the graduates walked out of the auditorium, each holding a lit candle in one hand and a relay runner's baton in the other. Each baton bore these words: "I commit today to carry the baton of revival to this generation. I will carry the banner of faith and God's power to a lost and dying world. This is my time to do all God has called me to do!"

GOD'S GREAT ADVENTURE

WHAT'S NOT TO LIKE about Vermont? Old New England charm, brilliant fall foliage, quaint covered bridges, and the best ski resorts the Northeast has to offer. And don't forget the maple syrup and the many varieties of artisanal cheese.

During Tracey Turner's second year at Rhema Bible Training College USA, the 2011 graduate was asked by two of her classmates to consider moving to Vermont with them. The couple planned on taking over a pastorate and wanted her to be their children's minister.

"Southern girls don't do 52 inches of snow!" she told them. "Be warm, be filled, but no way! After graduation, I'm going to Jacksonville, Florida, to preach a conference, and then I'm going back home to Virginia."

Before heading south, Tracey had an opportunity to attend Rhema's Prayer School. That day the entire hour was spent worshipping the Lord. Before long, Tracey was stuck to the floor, sobbing profusely. To others, it may have looked like she was being blessed by the Lord. Actually, she was getting busted!

In between sobs, Tracey clearly heard God say, "You need to leave that dock. That isn't your home port any longer." While she was a student at Rhema, the Lord showed her that her call included encouraging, empowering, and equipping leaders. She envisioned itinerating out of her home church in Virginia to do this.

When the Lord said "leave that dock," Tracey knew her time in Virginia was over. "Lord," she cried, "if I'm not going home where I can itinerate, I don't see how I can fulfill what you've called me to do."

"You'll do it one thing at a time," God said, "and you'll start 'there.'" The word there reverberated through Tracey's soul. She knew "there" meant Burlington, Vermont.

Coming Home

When Tracey arrived in Vermont, she fell in love with the state. It was Heaven on earth. Her heart was knit together with Vermonters. She felt like she had come home.

Less than two years after Tracey arrived in Burlington, the pastors she was helping announced that they were leaving and planning to close the church. But a core group of people still wanted a fellowship. Over time and through much prayer, the original church was dissolved and Life Abundant Christian Fellowship (LACF) was established with Tracey as pastor.

Tracey has a dedicated team of leaders who put feet to her vision. She readily admits that she couldn't do what God wants for Vermont without them. Whether they're reaching the community or ministering one-on-one, they'll do whatever it takes to share God's love and spread the Gospel.

Cultivating the Harvest

Spiritually speaking, it's been said that the New England states are "hard ground." When the Charismatic revival swept across the U.S., for the most part it missed Vermont. Later when the word of faith movement began, it never made it to the Green Mountain State.

Tracey believes that Vermonters will be won through personal relationships. Vermonters tend to sit back and watch. But once they see that you're genuine, they'll open their hearts and treat you like you're one of their own. They are an incredibly generous people. Vermonters have never really experienced a loving, powerful God. They've only been taught that God is ready to "slam the hammer" in judgment for mistakes. Tracey and her leadership team are determined to change that.

Service Sunday

To reach the community, LACF began "Service Sunday." Once a quarter, the church blesses either an organization or an individual. They will do anything—from cleaning out someone's yard and painting a house to assisting other Christian-based organizations with their community projects.

One time LACF members prepared a meal for a homeless shelter which receives donated food for its residents. Pasta is often on the menu because it's inexpensive. On one Service Sunday, LACF slow-cooked a huge chuck roast with potatoes and carrots.

THE SPIRIT OF GOD IS MOVING MIGHTILY IN VERMONT.

They served it with delicious green beans, yummy raspberry and pecan tarts, fresh fruit, cookies, and pies. The feast offered welcome relief from the residents' frequent pasta meals. It also spoke volumes to them of God's goodness and His lavish love.

Life Abundant Summer Celebration

LACF has also developed relationships through their Summer Celebration program. The church purchased a bounce house and used it as an outreach to unchurched families in the community. On the second and fourth Sundays throughout the summer, the church invited neighborhood families for fun and food. Both children and adults had a great time in the bounce house, and everyone had plenty to eat.

During one outreach, a young girl named Sam gave her life to the Lord. The next time she came to church, her two sisters came too. At the end of the service, both sisters gave their lives to the Lord. The girls are from a broken home and are shuffled between their parents' homes each week. After they accepted Christ as their Savior, a visible transformation could be seen on their faces. A peace settled on them that wasn't there before.

A Woman on a Mission

Once, a pastor from Connecticut called LACF. A relative of an older woman in his church had been hospitalized in upstate

New York. The man, in his 80s, was very sick, and the woman wanted someone to minister to him.

The pastor was two states away and couldn't go. He called churches that were relatively close to the hospital but couldn't find anyone willing to visit the man. "He's too far away." "He's not a member of our church."

Finally, the pastor found LACF in the Rhema church directory. When he called the church office, Marie—the associate pastor and administrator and a 1998 Rhema graduate—answered the phone. When she heard his request, she didn't need to consult with Pastor Tracey. Marie knew what Tracey would say. "Of course we'll go."

Joy, a church member who lives in southern Vermont, jumped on this ministry opportunity. After arriving at the hospital, she learned that the man had been transferred. She was told the new facility was "easy to find." An hour and a half later, she finally found him!

Joy discovered that this ill, aged man had never heard the Gospel. He didn't know that Jesus had died for his sins and that he could be forgiven. Before she left, this ailing man who no one wanted to visit prayed the salvation prayer!

'Don't Hit the Brakes'

If ever a place needed more laborers, it's Vermont. Right now LACF is the only Rhema-affiliated church in the state. The Lord told Tracey not to hit the brakes but to step on the gas and increase LACF's outreach efforts. Tracey and her leadership team are doing just that. They're busy sharing God's love, praying for the sick, and seeing glorious results.

It continues to be an amazing adventure for Tracey and her team to serve the Lord. They believe the fire of revival has already begun in Vermont. It's only a matter of time before it consumes the state!♥

HAVING FUN AT A SUMMER OUTREACH PROGRAM.

JUST BE YOU

THE WORLD TELLS US as women that we can have it all. We can have a thriving social life, an amazing career, a happy marriage, kids that are involved in every activity, a Pinterest-decorated home, and an inspiring social media presence. But that's a lie. We can't. We can try to do all those things, but we'll sacrifice our happiness.

I know. I thought I could be superwoman. I was trying to give 100 percent to my job, my husband, my children, my family, my friends, and my social media status. Until one day, I was just worn out. I was stressed out and unhappy. I realized I couldn't give 100 percent in every area of my life and still survive!

I cried out, "God, I admit it. I'm not superwoman!" The Lord said, "Who's asking you to be?" And I didn't know. I said, "I just want to be me and I want to be OK with that." The Lord told me, "To just be you, you have to love yourself. You have to love yourself like I love you." And I realized that I didn't love myself.

Somehow, I don't think I'm alone. I feel like there are women who feel the same way I did. No matter how much we do, how early we wake up, or how late we stay awake, we just can't fit it all in. God began to show me how to love myself as He loves me.

That's the key: loving ourselves as God loves us. Being you is letting people see the things you're good at and the things you're bad at. It's being who God created you to be. When you begin to see yourself the way God sees you, you can love yourself, and you can love others.

How God Sees Us

Seeing ourselves the way God sees us can be hard when we look in the mirror. So we have to look into a different mirror—the Word of God.

Luke 12:7 (NLT) says, "The very hairs on your head are all numbered." We are so important to our Heavenly Father that He even knows the number of hairs on our heads!

In Matthew chapter 6 Jesus told us how valuable we are to God.

MATTHEW 6:25–30 (NLT)

25 "That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn't life more than food, and your body more than clothing?"

26 Look at the birds. They don't plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them. And aren't you far more valuable to him than they are?"

27 Can all your worries add a single moment to your life?"

Why do we need to love ourselves? Because if we don't, we can't love others.

#RhemaWOF

28 “And why worry about your clothing? Look at the lilies of the field and how they grow. They don’t work or make their clothing, 29 yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. 30 And if God cares so wonderfully for wildflowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you.”

If God takes care of the random flowers in the field, how much more will He care for us? We’re the ones He gave His only Son for. How much more valuable are we to Him than birds and flowers?

We need to think God’s thoughts about us. God made us just the way we are. We are His masterpiece. He’s the Artist. God worked and said, “Yes, it’s perfect!” One of my favorite passages is Psalm 139. It talks about God making us and how valuable we are to Him. He says in verse 14 (Message) that we are marvelously made.

Truth or Trash?

The first place we must start loving ourselves is in our thought life. I like to use a truth-or-trash concept. We should evaluate every thought that comes into our minds. We should ask, “Is this truth? Is this what the Word says about me?” If it’s truth, we keep that. But if it doesn’t line up with God’s Word, then it’s a lie, and we throw it into the trash.

Every time a thought comes into our minds, we should ask, “Is this truth?”

#RhemaWOF

Second Corinthians 10:5 (NIV) says, “We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.” To love ourselves as God loves us, we have to control our thoughts. We win or lose battles in life in our minds.

Love Your Neighbor

Why do we need to love ourselves? Because if we don’t love ourselves, we can’t love others. Jesus said in Mark 12:31 (NLT), “Love your neighbor as yourself.” We can’t obey God’s Word and love others when we don’t love ourselves. But when we begin to love ourselves as God loves us, we can love other people. Our lives will be peaceful and joyful. We will treat others with kindness. Our relationships will be different.

Why do we need to love others? Because we need to be Jesus to our communities and the people around us. We might be the only Jesus they will ever see. Are they going to think that Jesus is critical, mean, rude, and hateful? Or are we representing Jesus as kind and loving?

To sum this up, I think one of our biggest problems is that we don’t love ourselves. The solution? We need to see ourselves the way God sees us, think His thoughts about us, and begin to love ourselves. Why? So we can love others.♥

LED FROM THE # OUTSIDE

IN ACTS 27:10 Paul wrote, “Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.”

Paul did not say, “The Lord told me” that this voyage will be with much hurt and damage. He simply said, “I perceive” that it will. In his spirit, Paul had an inward perception, an inward premonition, an inward witness that the voyage would be dangerous.

This is the primary way God leads all of us.

Paul did not perceive mentally. He did not have some kind of “vibration” or psychic experience. I don’t like this “vibration” business. Spiritual perceptions are not in the psychic realm. You do not find psychic phenomena in the Bible. Also, Paul did not perceive this physically. In his spirit he had a witness.

That belongs to all of us. The Holy Spirit abiding in our spirits must communicate with us through our spirits—not through our minds. That is why your spirit knows things your head doesn’t know. But we have not been taught to listen to our spirits. And sometimes we are reluctant to do so.

The reason we as Spirit-filled believers continually miss it, make mistakes, and fail is that our spirits, which should guide us, are kept locked away in prison, so to speak. Knowledge, or intellect, has taken the throne.

Any person who shuts his spirit away and never listens to it—because the spirit of man is the candle of the Lord (Prov. 20:27)—becomes crippled in life and becomes an easy prey to selfish and designing people.

My wife and I held a meeting for a certain lady pastor—a very spiritually beautiful woman—who related this story to me herself.

An evangelist was coming to town. He got all the churches he could to cooperate with him in a citywide meeting. He rented the city auditorium. It is a sorry thing to have to say, but everyone in the ministry is not honest. Because this man had a poor credit rating, the city auditorium demanded payment in advance. So he went through this woman pastor. She was gullible enough to say her church would stand responsible for $3,000 rent and all newspaper advertising. Crowds of 2,000 to 3,000 attended every night. He took up a lot of money, but he left town without paying one bill. This woman’s church had to take $5,000 out of their building fund to cover this evangelist’s expenses.

This lady pastor told me, “Brother Hagin, if I had listened to my heart, I would never have done that.”

I said to her, “I heard you recovered your money.”

She said, “I sure did. I found out where he was holding a meeting in another state. I got an airplane ticket and went there. The service had already started. I waited. Just when they were about

WE WANT TO HEAR!

Have you heard from God through an inward witness? Tell us about it on social media! Just #RhemaWOF.

to turn the service to him I marched down the aisle and toward the platform. An usher tried to stop me. I said, ‘No, I am a minister of the Gospel. I want to see this scoundrel.’ I walked right up on the platform and plopped myself down beside him.

“I said, ‘I have come after my $5,000. I will take the offering tonight. I brought my attaché case along. We will dump all the offering in there. And I will stay around here every night until my church recovers all of our money.’

“He said, ‘Well, now we . . .’

“I said, ‘No, if you don’t give me back all of my money, when they say they are going to turn the service over to you, I am going to take the pulpit and tell the people what happened. And not only that, I am going to follow you from meeting to meeting. In every meeting, I am going to come up on the platform and make the same announcement and tell the people what you did.’”

The person who listens to his spirit is the man or woman, boy or girl who climbs to the top!

#RhemaWOF

Needless to say, in two nights she had her money and she was on her way home. I glory in her spunk.

But the point I want to make is this. She said to me, “Brother Hagin, if I had listened to my spirit, this never would have happened. I don’t mean if I had listened to a voice; I don’t even mean a still, small voice. I just mean if I had listened to the inward witness. I had a check in my spirit. If I had listened to it, I wouldn’t have stood good for his debts.”

If we as individuals would have listened to our hearts—to an inward witness, or an inward voice—we would not have done some things we did.

I have lost money by not listening to that inward witness. I knew on the inside that I should not do some things. Why did I do them? Well, why do any of us not listen to the inward witness?

But just because you make a mistake, don’t quit. You don’t quit physically just because you make a mistake. If the phone rings in the middle of the night and you stumble over a stool and fall down trying to answer it, you don’t just lie there. You get up and answer the phone. Just because you bust your shins or stub your toe physically, you don’t quit. And just because you bust your shins or stub your toe spiritually, you don’t quit either.

As I said, the person who keeps his spirit shut away and never listens to it becomes crippled in life. The person who listens to his spirit is the man or woman, boy or girl who climbs to the top!

If Christians would just check up on the inside of them in most of the affairs of life, they would know what to do.

You do not need to seek guidance when the Bible has already told you what to do. Go ahead and do it. The Bible tells you how to act in every circumstance of life. It tells husbands how to treat wives. It tells wives how to treat husbands. It tells parents how to treat their children. It tells children how to respond to their parents. The Bible tells all of us to walk in love—divine love. And that divine love, which seeks not its own, is also a matter of the heart. ♥

Thoughts

// LYNETTE HAGIN

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

LAST MONTH I began writing about the days we are living in. I believe that we are in the last days. Jesus could return at any moment. Paul admonished Timothy concerning the last days, "You should know this, Timothy, that in the last days there will be very difficult times. For people will love only themselves and their money. They will be boastful and proud, scoffing at God, disobedient to their parents, and ungrateful. They will consider nothing sacred" (2 Tim. 3:1–2 NLT). Certainly all of us have experienced difficult times in this day.

Life for many seems to be "all about me." People ask, "What can satisfy me? How is this going to benefit me?" Jesus commanded His disciples concerning the last day, "You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected" (Matt. 24:44 NLT). In the last issue I said that the first step we need to take to be ready for the Lord's return is to present ourselves entirely to him.

The second step we need to take is to walk in the Spirit each day. Galatians 5:16–17 (NLT) commands us, "So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves. The sinful nature wants to do evil, which is just the opposite of what the Spirit wants. And the Spirit gives us desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires. These two forces are constantly fighting each other, so you are not free to carry out your good intentions."

You may be thinking, "How can I walk in the Spirit continuously?" To accomplish that, we must do several things. Of course, each day we should read our Bible and pray. However, I have found that we must surround ourselves with a good spiritual atmosphere. It is important to recognize that the presence of God can be with us at all times. Psalm 140:13 (NLT) says, "Surely righteous people are praising your name; the godly will live in your presence." I surround myself continuously with praise and worship music. Godly music helps me live in God's presence. We have worship music playing continuously in our home. I sleep by it. I get dressed in the morning by it. And whenever I am at home, I am listening to that music. Worship music keeps my focus on the Lord. Often as I listen, I talk to God.

For instance, one of my favorite songs is "Because He Lives" by Bill Gaither. The chorus begins, "Because He lives, I can face tomorrow." As I listen to those words, suddenly I begin thanking the Heavenly Father that because His presence goes with me, I truly can face each day and each situation.

You can be on your job and still keep your thoughts on God. I constantly talk to Him as I accomplish each day's tasks. Often I say, "God, I need wisdom to make a decision." Or I may say, "Lord, give me strength to perform every task that is necessary today." As I talk to God, He in turn talks to me. The more you communicate with Him each day, the more His thoughts become your thoughts. And suddenly you will develop walking in the Spirit.

A third step we need to take to be ready for the Lord's return is to practice the fruit of the Spirit. Galatians 5:22–23 (NKJV) says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law." I admit that practicing the fruit of the Spirit is not always easy. When someone wrongs you, the last thing your flesh wants to do is love them. When you are experiencing turbulent times in your life, it can be difficult to practice having peace in your heart and mind.

However, I have found that the Father provides scriptures to help us practice the fruit of the Spirit. Matthew 5:44 (NKJV) says, "But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you." John 16:33 (NKJV) says, "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." I encourage you to begin practicing these three steps. We will continue with this subject next month.♥

What Do YOU Do in the Time of Trouble?

We all go through situations in life that can be very difficult. But the Christian should have a different response to trouble than other people. Take Paul and Silas for instance. They were put into prison just for being Christians! How do you think you would act in their situation? Read the story below and see if you can find the two things that Paul and Silas did that all Christians should do in their time of trouble.

"The crowd joined the attack against them. The Roman officers tore the clothes of Paul and Silas and had them beaten with rods again and again. Then Paul and Silas were thrown into jail. The jailer was ordered to guard them carefully. When he heard this order, he put them far inside the jail. He pinned down their feet between large blocks of wood. About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing songs to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly, there was a big earthquake. It was so strong that it shook the foundation of the jail. Then all the doors of the jail broke open. All the prisoners were freed from their chains" (Acts 16:22-26 ICB).

WHEN SHOULD WE PRAISE THE LORD?

King David loved to sing and praise God. In the Book of Psalms he tells us "when" we should praise the Lord. See if you can find the four times he wrote that we should praise the Lord contained in this spiral of letters. It could be in the form of a single word or a phrase.

Get Those Hands Up!

One way we can show our praise to God is by lifting our hands to Him. King David said "I will lift up my hands in thy name" (Psalm 63:4).
